Stability can increase jobs—Thompson

A confident but still hard-working candidate for governor, Republican James R. Thompson, pledged in Granite City yesterday to work for greater stability in the conduct of state government and fewer surprises in the factors that affect Illinois' business, economic and employment outlook.

Favored 2:1 in polls to win Illinois' highest elective office next Tuesday, Thompson rose after four hours' sleep Wednesday to shake hands with American Steel Foundries employees as they reported for work at 6:30.

The former northern Illinois federal prosecutor then greeted voters in a Granite City bakery before breakfasting with local and touring newsmen during a press conference at Charlie's Restaurant.

An opponent of the "politics of confrontation" that he says has plagued Illinois during the current term, the tall, relaxed, low-key campaigner said firms need an accurate estimate of the overall climate in which they must operate when they plan expansions and new facilities and expand job opportunities.

Continuously returning to his view that there must be a balance between various

Ghosts, monsters to parade

By VALERIE EVENDEN

Press-Record Staff Writer

Hobgoblins, spooks, witches and the usual array of colorful seasonal monsters are expected to spark the traditional Halloween parade on Saturday night in Downtown Granite City.

Sponsored each year by Granite City Moose Lodge 272, the parade will start promptly at 7 p.m. Saturday from the front steps of the City Hall on Niedringhaus Avenue.

Escorting the cavalcade of youngsters and adults will be Rolling Nobles of the Amnash Shrine Temple, Walter Anders, Moose parade chairman, announced today.

Participation is open to all age levels and cash prizes will be awarded to first, second and third place finishers in three categories of competition—funniest, most original and best dressed. Many consolation prizes also will be presented. Paraders are being asked to gather by 6:45 p.m. Saturday in front of the City Hall, where each marcher in costume will receive a number to enable judges to identify individual contestants more easily, Anders said.

Members of Women of the Moose Chapter 247 will assist the men's lodge in "tagging" the paraders.

Serving as judges will be Officer Friendly (Glenn Wright) of the Granite City Police Department, Captain Michael Tompkins, Salvation Army commandant, and David Partney, a Granite City businessman.

Granite City Mayor Paul Schuler will present the awards to the top contestants, Anders said.

GUNNING FOR VOTES. While campaigning in Granite City yesterday, James R. Thompson (left), Republican nominee for governor, receives from Eric Robertson a shotgun Thompson had purchased during an earlier campaign stop in New Baden. Delivery to him was delayed until Wednesday to enable the candidate to obtain a firearm identification card.

An estimated 2,000 persons are expected to attend a Democratic campaign rally at Nameoki Village Shopping Center Saturday afternoon at which Michael J. Howlett, Democratic candidate for governor, will be the speaker.

The rally, planned as the largest effort of the current campaign in the Quad-Cities, will be attended by other state candidates and by candidates for county and district offices. Von Dee Cruse, Granite City Township assessor and chairman of the arrangements for the rally, said efforts still were being made today to bring President Candidate Jimmy Carter to Granite City for the rally. Carter is to be in St. Louis Friday.

The rally will be held from 2 to 5 p.m. in the former W. T. Grant store building and will be sponsored by the Madison County Democratic Central Committee. Crews of volunteer workers have been busy for the past several days decorating the building.

Cruse said that Democratic leaders expect at least 2,000 persons to attend the rally. A first aid station is to be established in the building during the event. Refreshments will be served after the speaking program.

The rally will be preceded by parades in the Quad-Cities and in the Alton area made up of caravans of candidates and Democratic leaders and workers. After driving through their respective areas, the caravans will converge on the shopping center for the rally events.

Continue drive—goal near

A fourth consecutive successful annual drive is "almost within reach" for the Tri-Cities Area United Way.

Pledges soared to 97.2 percent of the $475,000 goal at the fourth report. Luncheon yesterday at the Granite City Army Installation.

Solicitation is continuing and Campaign Chairman Bill H. Terrell is urging that all contribution cards be completed and turned in to the United Way office on or before next Wednesday, Nov. 3.

Confidence is being voiced, but attaining the goal depends directly on whether those who have not yet contributed do so within the next several days, it was noted.

No more report meetings are planned. Instead, emphasis is being placed on "working all cards by next Wednesday."

Pledges reached $461,868 at Wednesday's luncheon gathering.

Industrial firms and employees have given $363,611, business division contributors have provided $26,480 and the civic division has obtained $19,839, it was announced.

Professional persons have pledged $12,537 and construction companies and workers have given $10,800. The mail and telephone division so far has obtained $11,100.

Commercial division I has raised $4,576 and commercial division II $7,926 so far. Madison-Venice contributions amount to $4,999 at this point, and considerably more is being predicted in that division.

Illinois Bell Telephone Co. employees were singled out yesterday for a 15 per cent increase in their giving to the Tri-Cities Area United Way.

American Steel Foundries employees and management were praised for increasing their total despite a smaller number of employees.

Al P. Steinhauer, who has served as acting executive director since the departure of S. T. "Pete" Nasir, was honored yesterday for his efforts.

Contract to widen Pershing

A contract for widening, resurfacing and curb and gutter installation on Pershing Boulevard from Marshall Avenue to Garden Drive was awarded by the Granite City Council Tuesday night.

The contract award went to the CAM Construction Co. of Wood River on a low bid of $32,567, which was $2,718 below the city engineer's construction estimate of $35,285.

Three other contracting firms bid on the job: C. D. Peters Construction Co. of Granite City, $33,651; Paul Seebold Co. of Granite City, $45,469; and the Cardinal Construction Co. of East St. Louis, $45,750.

Edward Schulze, assistant city engineer, said work on the street improvement will begin shortly after contracts are signed and performance bonds posted.

Schulze said the improvement will include widening of Pershing Boulevard with installation of storm drainage facilities, curbing and guttering and bituminous surfacing for approximately one-quarter of a mile.

In a related action, the council received notice from the Illinois Department of Transportation (Continued on Page 24)

Downtown dispute

A dispute began yesterday between 15 stores in the Granite City central business district and a majority of the retail clerks working for them. The stores remain in operation.

The 15 had joined together in a multi-store bargaining group to negotiate a new contract with Retail Clerks Local 435.

A spokesman said, "All have committed themselves to be bound by the negotiation decisions of the group. This commitment includes an obligation to lock out employees in case one of the member stores is struck. When a strike began Wednesday at Earl's Discount Store, the other members locked out members of Local 435.

"The group of stores has suffered seriously from a depressed economic environment. Apparently, the local feels that this group should carry a greater weight than giant chain stores in the area."

"Granite City retail clerks are presently earning more than any other clerks in the entire area. Despite this fact, the union has shown no willingness to accept our offer of a fair pay increase and additional benefits in sick leave, funeral pay, jury duty and breaks," the spokesman con-

50-150 years for 'money jar' murder

Angelo Dwayne Baker, 17, of Grenier Homes, Madison, was sentenced Monday afternoon to serve 50 to 150 years in prison for the shooting death of Frank J. Riddle, 59, and a concurrent 20 to 60-year prison term for the attempted murder of Mr. Riddle's wife, Ann, in the couple's home at 1701 Market St., Madison, March 31. The sentences were pronounced by Circuit Judge Moses W. Harrison II at Edwardsville who said the court noted Baker and two juvenile girls were known to the Riddle couple and "entered the home and private residence of the Riddle couple for many years, and did cause Mr. Riddle to be shot several times, and after the victim fell to the floor, shot him again."

Under those circumstances, the court felt it appropriate that the sentence exceed the minimum of 14 years for murder, Judge Harrison said. The invasion of a private home and the shooting of Mrs. Riddle in the stomach when she was already on the floor likewise made it appropriate to exceed the minimum of four years in sentencing, he added.

During final statements prior to sentencing, Baker told the court he "was sorry he had committed the crimes and he apologized to his mother for the 'heartaches' he had 'caused her'."

Baker said he and the juvenile girls entered the Riddle home March 31 with the intent to take money from a jar from which

Perhaps the largest of the original families was the Gilliam family.

The first marriage license in Madison County was issued to James Gilliam and Polly Good.

The couple settled in Chouteau Township here.

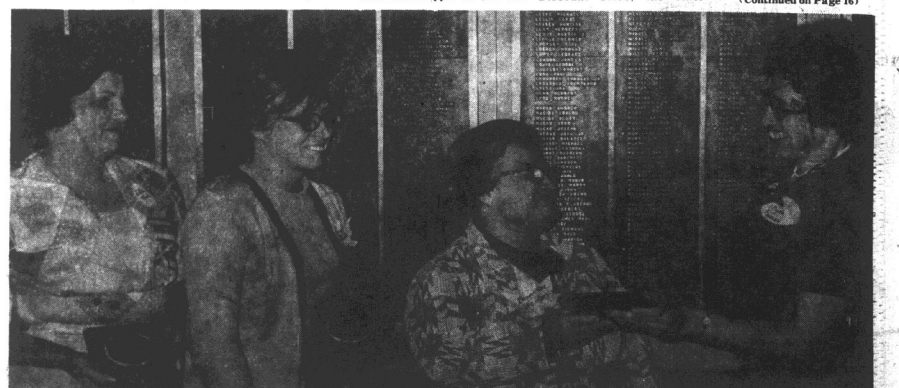

Their family consisted of four daughters.

The oldest, Sally, became the wife of Roland Ballard.

The second, Polly Ann, was the wife of Jackson Davidson and, afterward, the wife of Jefferson Cox.

Fire destroys home; family needs help

Fire early today destroyed the home of Mrs. Rosalie Sellers and her six children at 2112 Dewey Ave., and the Salvation Army is seeking donations of cash, clothing and other items to aid the family.

The fire first broke out at 5:05 a.m. today and spread quickly.

The family escaped without injury, but the family dog was found dead in the bathroom by firefighters. It is believed the dog died of smoke inhalation.

The two-story frame house was completely gutted and flames leaped through the roof and through the walls in some areas.

Damage is estimated at $15,000 to the building, owned by Ira Birdsong, and $7,000 to the contents. Mrs. Sellers said she had no insurance on the contents and everything was burned.

A faulty furnace was believed responsible for the blaze which required about five hours to extinguish. Persons wishing to aid the Sellers family are requested to contact the Red Cross to determine what is needed. Clothing for the children, ages 4 through 17, is among the most critical need at this time, a spokesman said.

DANIEL BOYLE, 74, Rural Route Two, Granite City. Funeral services were held Wednesday morning at St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church with burial in Calvary Cemetery, Edwardsville Township. He died at 7 a.m. Sunday at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Straw vote by seniors two to one for Carter

If local voters follow the trend of a straw ballot voting project being carried out this week at Brunswick Tri-Mor Bowl, 3701 Nameoki Road, the resulting totals predicted exactly the general trend of the entire election, Sodi said.

"We have a pretty good cross section of the community in our leagues — women in the afternoon, senior citizens in the morning and the men's and mixed leagues at night," the manager stated. "The closest count was in the Tuesday afternoon leagues which recorded 39 for Carter and 33 for Ford."

general election, more than 2,800 bowlers voted at Brunswick Tri-Mor Bowl, 3701 Nameoki Road. The resulting totals predicted exactly the general trend of the entire election, Sodi said.

"We have a pretty good cross section of the community in our leagues — women in the afternoon, senior citizens in the morning and the men's and mixed leagues at night," the manager stated. "The closest count was in the Tuesday afternoon leagues which recorded 39 for Carter and 33 for Ford."

At least 80 per cent of the bowlers are voting and appear to be enjoying the "mock" election, Sodi commented. "Yesterday afternoon (Wednesday), 94 senior citizens voted with 63 casting ballots for Carter and 31 for Ford."

"You hate to say too much when even a straw vote goes this strong, but I really believe this community is going to go the same way in Tuesday's election," Sodi said. A few scattered votes have listed Eugene McCarthy and one or two other names, he added.

The voting started Monday at the Granite City bowling lanes and will continue through Sunday night. Ballots are printed with only the names of the two presidential candidates.

Every league bowler has a chance to participate and the ballots are collected in a large, sealed jar by a Tri-Mor employee during each morning, afternoon and night session, Sodi explained.

A final count will be made Sunday night and the results of the overall voting will be published in Monday's Press-Record.

Candy sale to aid mentally retarded

Knights of Columbus Tri-Cities Council 1098 will conduct a "Tootsie Roll" drive to aid mentally retarded citizens on Friday and Saturday, Nov. 5 and 6.

The local effort is being coordinated with a statewide drive by the Illinois Knights of Columbus, according to Jesse Becerra, worthy warden and chairman of the campaign here. Grand Knight A. L. "Pete"

Metcalfe is serving as Council 1098 co-chairman for the drive. "Proceeds from the local drive will remain in the Quad-City area to help our mentally retarded citizens — young and old alike," Metcalfe said. "Our program is designed to help those less fortunate than you and I," he added.

Becerra noted the Tootsie Roll candy bars will not be sold directly, but offered for a freewill donation of any amount.

"A goal of $5,000 has been set for the Quad-Cities and with the aid of our local citizens we will reach that modest amount," Metcalfe said. "We hope and pray we will attain our goal."

Volunteers to distribute the candy still are needed for the drive, the co-chairmen advised. They urged all members of the Knights of Columbus and their wives to help.

"The more who work the greater our success will be in helping our less fortunate residents," Metcalfe said. Assistance especially is needed on Friday, Nov. 5, he added.

Steelmaking down to 80% of capacity

September raw steel output — held down by the Ford Motor Co. strike — fell below August but surpassed year-ago levels, the American Iron and Steel Institute reported yesterday. Production by the nation's mills last month totaled 10,463,000 tons, equal to a capacity utilization rate of 80.4 per cent. This compared to production in August of 11,128,000 tons, equal to a capacity utilization rate of 82.8 per cent. September 1975 steel production was 9.3 million tons. September output, the lowest since February's 9,907,000 tons, brought raw steel production for the first nine months of the year to 99,206,000 tons.

This represented a capacity utilization rate of 84.1 per cent, and compared to raw steel production of 96 million tons in the first nine months of 1975. After operating at just 80 per cent of their steelmaking capacity in the first quarter of this year, mills sharply boosted production in the second quarter, reaching output of 35.2 million tons, or about 90 per cent of raw steelmaking capacity for the full quarter. A decline began in July and the industry finished the third quarter with production of 33 million tons.

The downturn continued through the first week of October. However, mill output took an upturn for the week of Oct. 16, rising 2.6 per cent over the previous week. Production through Oct. 16 totaled 104.2 million tons, an increase of 9.2 per cent over production of 95.4 million tons in the same period in 1975.

Output by the three major steelmaking processes in the first nine months of this year was: 61.5 million tons from the basic oxygen process; 19 million tons from electric furnaces, and 18.7 million tons from open hearth furnaces.

PUSH, LOOT AUTO

The car of Rick Wofford, 3225 Terrace Lane, was pushed from Wofford's carport into a field south of his home and was broken into, it was discovered at 5:35 p.m. Monday. It could not be determined how the car was unlocked. Taken were two speakers worth $36 and four tape recordings valued at a total of $20. An $80 stereo unit was damaged beyond repair in an unsuccessful attempt to remove it.

Efficiency issue in campaigning for recorder

RONALD P. LUCAS

Ronald P. Lucas, 37, mayor of Maryville since 1966, is seeking a second four-year term as Madison County recorder of deeds.

He was unopposed in the county's March 16 Democratic primary election, and is on the ballot Nov. 2.

A lifelong resident of Maryville, he attended elementary school there and Collinsville High School. He was a village trustee for five years before coming mayor.

Lucas formerly was an investigator on the staff of the Illinois secretary of state and was a member of Madison County and Illinois police groups.

A past president of Madison County Young Democrats, he is active in Maryville, county and Illinois firemen's associations, various Democratic clubs, Moose Lodge 1351 and Our Mother of Perpetual Help Catholic Church.

As recorder of deeds, Lucas has stressed microfilming of records as assurance against fire, theft or loss of documents. Deeds, mortgages and other legal papers are filmed regularly to minimize storage costs and to speed the retrieval and copying of records.

Monetary savings and increased efficiency are regarded as dividends of the microfilming emphasis. Lucas says his office in the future will perform microfilming for records of the circuit court clerk and county clerk, and could do the same for other county offices.

From $108,293 revenue and $110,277 costs in 1973, the

ROBERT E. LYNCH

Robert E. Lynch, 26, Bethalto, is on the ballot Nov. 2 as a Republican seeking the office of Madison County recorder of deeds.

Pledging to be a full-time recorder, Lynch assails the incumbent for serving simultaneously as Maryville mayor, county recorder and treasurer of the Madison County Democratic party.

Born and raised in East Alton, Lynch resides in Bethalto with his wife and son. He was in the service during the Vietnam war, receiving a combat medal, the bronze star, and has been working at the General Electric Co. as a machine adjuster while attending college classes. He has taken business and management training at SIUE.

Lynch and his wife have a three-year-old son. He favors making records more accessible, saying service in the recorder's office was faster before documents were filmed and placed in cassettes.

recorder's office has advanced to income of $222,317 and costs of $130,639 in 1975.

South, North renew grid rivalry Friday; Steelers need win to stay in playoffs

Granite City football fans' enthusiasm will be at fever pitch at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the Granite City Stadium when GCHS South and GCHS North clash in a third annual varsity grid game between the two schools.

Coach Stan Wojcik's South Warriors, with a 3-4 record, have yet to defeat Coach Tom Wyrostek's North Steelers but have "put it all together" in recent games. In 1974, North edged South 7-0. Last year, the Steelers rallied and won 16-7.

To South, a victory means evening its win-loss record — and averting the 1975 loss to the Steelers. To North, a win means staying alive in the race for qualifying for the Class 4A state playoffs.

The Steelers, now with a 6-1 record, must play a minimum of eight games by Nov. 6 and as an independent school must have a winning percentage of 80 per cent or better to be given consideration for an "at-large berth."

North faces Mattoon in a crucial pre-playoff game Friday, Nov. 5, with a win or tie an absolute necessity, providing the Steelers emerge victorious tomorrow at South.

GCHS South opened the 1976 season with losses of 35-0 to St. Louis DeSmet, 9-6 to O'Fallon and 14-8 to Belleville East but won 21-26 over Cahokia. Following a 27-0 shutout by Edwardsville, South defeated Collinsville 28-27 and then Alton 20-12.

GCHS North won five in a row — 14-6 over Cahokia, 9-0 over Collinsville, 49-14 over Wood River, 7-0 over Roxana and 25-0 over Mount Vernon — before suffering a loss to DeSmet, 14-6. North then won 7-0 over Belleville Alhott.

Warriors Quarterback Keith

Champion has completed 20 aeriels for 202 yards passing and the team has run for 1,082 yards.

Cliff Moran has scored three touchdowns and achieved 502 yards rushing. Mike Clark has rushed for 135 yards, and Tim Anderson has gained 136 yards on pass receptions.

Other Warriors' TD scorers have been Jay Heubner two and Champion one. Tim Kirksey has provided a 37-yard field goal in addition to kicking extra points.

Steelers Greg Corey has thrown passes that clicked for a total of 593 yards, and North has gained 1,426 yards on the ground. Senior Fred Clay has picked up 617 yards and eight TDs.

Mike Sherman and Keith Atkins have been the primary recipients of Corey aeriels, each getting touchdowns on catches.

North has put 117 points on the scoreboard while holding opposing teams to only 34. Opponents have gained 875 yards rushing against the Steelers defense and 518 yards passing.

District harrier rivalry

GCHS North and GCHS South harriers will join 14 other high schools at 11 a.m. Saturday in competition for team and individual honors in the district cross-country meet hosted by Edwardsville High School.

The run is to be held on a 2.95-mile course at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Also entered are Alton, Belleville East and West, Bethalto, Cahokia, Collinsville, East St. Louis Senior High and Lincoln, Highland, Mascoutah, O'Fallon, Roxana and Wood River.

The top five teams and top 10 runners will advance to sectional competition Saturday, Nov. 6, at Stephen Decatur High School.

The top three sectional teams and top 10 individuals then advance to state finals Saturday, Nov. 15, at Peoria's DeWitt Park three-mile course.

Steelers Mike Baker is a pre-norm favorite to win the district run. Last year, he set a new course record of 15 minutes, 31 seconds in beating Alton's Randy Adler to the finish line. North High placed second and then captured the sectional title.

GCHS South qualified last year for its third straight sectional after placing fourth in the district.

Of the Warriors who competed last year, only Glen Ahlers and Ken Meagthers have returned this season.

GC crimes decline during September

A total of 245 major crimes in eight categories were reported during September in Granite City, with police solving 51 of these cases by arrest, according to a report by Chief of Police Ronald Veizer.

The September crime reports totaled 20 less than the 265 crimes reported in the same month a year ago, while the 51 cases cleared were 17 less than 68 cleared in September 1975, the report showed.

Veizer's report showed there were no homicides last month, compared to one in the same month a year ago, and one rape case, compared to none in September 1975. There were no robbery cases last month, down from three a year ago.

A total of 27 assault cases during the month was down ten from 37 cases a year ago, with 20 of last month's cases solved by arrests, compared to 27 cases cleared in September 1975. Sixty-three burglary cases occurred last month, up two, with seven cases cleared, compared to five the previous year.

Auto burglary cases increased by nine to 49 last month, with two cases cleared, compared to three cases cleared a year ago. Larceny cases declined by six to 92 last month, with 18 cases cleared by arrests. Twenty-seven of the 98 larceny cases reported in September 1975 were cleared by arrests.

A total of 13 auto thefts was reported, down from 25, with three cases cleared, same as last year. Granite City had no fatal accidents during September, compared to one the previous year, but had 47 accidents in which 65 persons were injured, compared to 35 accidents in September 1975 in which 49 persons were injured. There were 102 property damage accidents during the month, compared to 111 the previous year.

The Police Department made 114 traffic arrests and 122 other arrests during the month, compared to 166 traffic arrests and 190 other arrests in September 1975, for total arrests of 256 arrests last month, down 114 from last year.

More natural gas provided for heating

Illinois Power Company announced Tuesday that natural gas for space heating purposes will be made available to 14,120 applicants on file as of Monday, Oct. 25, in the various areas served by the company.

Of the space heating applicants, approximately 13,530 are in Priority 1, residential, and 590 are in Priority 2, small commercial.

C. W. Wells, executive vice president of the company, said the gas for this release has been made available from industrial customers who have been on limited firm rates and who have elected to be served under interruptible rates.

The limited firm classification was established by the Illinois Commerce Commission to provide a more firm service than interruptible usage but at a higher cost.

All new customers for natural gas are served by Illinois Power Company under a strict priority system on file with the commerce commission.

Wells emphasized that natural gas remains in short supply.

Customers must have written applications on file at their local IP offices to avail themselves of any possible new releases of additional gas, Wells said.

Young conductor leads 3 bands at university

Performing good musical literature and giving students a chance to gain experience are two of the goals of Carl St. Clair, new director of bands at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

"I'm trying to accomplish a standard of music excellence that would promote music as an art form, as well as provide an experience students — both education and performance majors — can carry to their musical jobs as teachers or performers," says St. Clair.

He received a master's degree in performance and instrumental conducting from the University of Texas at Austin. St. Clair also received his bachelor's degree in music education from the University of Texas; his principal instrument is the trumpet.

He has had experience conducting orchestras, chamber groups, operas and band and wind ensembles.

"I feel comfortable conducting all groups," said St. Clair, who will be conducting SIUE's Symphonic Band, University Band and Wind Ensemble. He is replacing Alan McMurray, who left SIUE for a position at the University of Michigan.

St. Clair and two other candidates for the position came to SIUE this summer. As part of the interview process, they conducted a band composed of available music students.

"I was particularly impressed with this," St. Clair said. "The students showed a concern for their own education. The people who came were non-apathetic."

The students also talked with the applicants and filed comment sheets.

St. Clair, 24, does not think his youth will hinder his teaching.

"It's a question I had to think about," he said. "But, I'm here for a purpose, and that purpose is to teach music."

St. Clair said he plans to have the groups perform works from good band literature. He also will be doing some marches and several light pieces throughout the year with the Symphonic Band.

"One of the functions of a band or any musical organization is entertainment," St. Clair believes.

He feels that the audience likes a break in a concert by hearing lighter pieces which are not necessarily "less valid musically."

The first Symphonic Band and Wind Ensemble concert is Sunday, Nov. 7, at 3:30 p.m. in the Communications Building theater.

St. Clair would like to have more students join the University Band.

After hearing the audition for Symphonic Band and Wind Ensemble, St. Clair said he was impressed.

"We have some fine talents. I'm going to try to keep their concern and desire at a high level."

Disabled veterans' training and jobs

Nelson Hagnauer, Madison County Board chairman, has announced that the Office of Manpower Development, directed by Dan Churovich, has received funds through the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act to provide training and public service jobs for veterans receiving disability compensation from the Veterans Administration.

The project is designed to place unskilled disabled veterans in training programs and to place unemployed disabled veterans with a marketable skill in public service jobs.

For those disabled veterans enrolled in the training program, the Office of Manpower Development will provide all training costs and the disabled veteran will be eligible for G.I. benefits and Illinois military scholarships.

Veterans eligible for the public service jobs will be placed with local-level units of government and non-profit organizations.

Disabled veterans wishing to participate must apply at their local Illinois State Employment Service office and complete a Manpower application.

Questions concerning this project may be addressed to Ray Hudock, program supervisor, or Tom Pendt, assistant supervisor, at 692-4597, the Office of Manpower Development.

Cayuga burglary

A 10-speed bicycle, a tent, a camping lantern and a camera were known missing after a burglary at the home of James Goodman, 2011 Cayuga St., between Thursday, Oct. 21, and Monday.

The rear door was found to have been kicked open and all rooms and the basement were ransacked. Burned matches, believed used for lighting, were found in the basement with an empty match cover.

The broken lock from the bicycle also was found in the basement.

Trick or treating Saturday only in M-V

"Trick or treating" in Madison and Venice will be permitted only on Saturday between 6 p.m. and 9 p.m. according to a joint announcement made today by Chief of Police Ralph D. Brawley of Venice and Chief of Police Frank Dukko of Madison.

Both cities will have extra police on duty in both marked and unmarked cars to offer additional protection to children.

Vandals will face prosecution to the full extent of the law.

Parents are being asked by the police to limit their children's trick or treating to their own neighborhoods and to inspect all candies and other food articles before allowing the children to have them.

FEPIC CREATED
A presidential order June 15, 1941, created the Fair Employment Practices Committee to prevent racial discrimination in defense work.

Parents learn quilting

Continuing a program to acquaint adults with some of the coming activities conducted within the Granite City school system, Parkview School invited parents to attend its Parent Learning Center last week and see an expert demonstrate the art of Victorian quilting.

The project was arranged under the direction of Eugene L. Alassi, Granite City School District art consultant, in cooperation with Parkview Parent-Teacher Association, Mrs. Agnes Fryntko, Parkview principal and Phyllis Bills of the American Handicraft Co. of Granite City.

Mrs. Fryntko said objective at the Parent Learning Center this year is to introduce parents to several cultural areas of education in the local school system's curriculum. Emphasis was placed previously on new math, among other areas of education.

Those attending the learning center program last week saw Mrs. Bills demonstrate the intricacies of Victorian quilting.

Originally, the art consisted of tightly wrapping narrow strips of white paper around a quill (the bare pointed end of a feather) and then pressing the resulting paper coils into various interesting shapes.

In Victorian times, beautiful and elaborate decorations were made with quilting especially by the French nuns, Mrs. Bills explained.

Today's quilters can purchase pre-cut paper strips in white and colors, the instructor said. The paper coils are carefully glued on a background, which can be a ceramic tile, heavy cardboard, burlap-wrapped wood plaques or cardboard wrapped in burlap or patterned material such as calico print.

Pull tabs from soft drink cans may be used as hangers, or commercial picture hangers may be purchased, the program participants learned.

Following the instruction period, several parents remained to make Christmas decorations and other ornamental artwork.

Two Nov. 2 voting polls are changed

Changes in the location of two polling places in the Quad-City area were announced this week by County Clerk Evelyn Bowles.

She said voters of Precinct 8 in Nameki Township will cast ballots at the Wholesale Carpet Co., 4010 Pontoon Road. The polling place originally was listed at the Edith Monroe residence, 4112 Division Ave.

The other new location has been selected for voters of Precinct 25 of Granite City Township at the Lorton Pulley residence, 2121 Nevada Ave. The previous polling place had been scheduled at 2119 Nevada Ave.

College night for high school students Nov. 4

Annual college night will be held at GCHS South Thursday, Nov. 4, at 7 p.m. for students of both South and North high schools.

Representatives of public and private colleges will talk with students interested in obtaining knowledge of opportunities being offered by various educational institutions. The program is designed to present information which will help students select a college to attend.

The South High music department, directed by Joe Owens, will present entertainment preceding the meeting.

Administrator, prosecutor compete for governor office

"Also, by renewing efforts to revive the Illinois economy, which will produce not only more jobs for the unemployed, but increase sales and income taxes."

"With over 340,000 Illinois citizens out of work, the potential increase in state revenue is in the hundreds of millions of dollars."

"When this is added to the normal annual growth in state receipts of over $400 million, and proper establishment of priorities, much can be achieved."

"And by tightening and reorganizing state government as I did, with suggestions from blue ribbon management advisory panels in both the auditor's and secretary of state's offices."

"I also favor the enactment of 'sunset laws' which would make departments and agencies justify their continued existence every few years—or go out of business."

"With such a program, substantial progress can be made to increase state school funding and lessen the property tax burden on the citizen."

"At the same time, we must work to keep local control of the schools."

"This can be done by channeling increased aid through the school aid formula—the state's first revenue sharing program."

"In this way, local school boards receive increased aid without increasing the number of strings attached."

"When I left the auditor's office in 1973, we had fewer employees than the office had in 1961, although state government had more than tripled."

"As secretary of state, I continued that record of economy and efficiency, and in less than three years cut my payroll 13 per cent."

"It is precisely that kind of economy and efficiency which we need to solve the fiscal problems of Illinois state and local governments without increasing taxes."

"Since the personal property tax that we now have is only on corporations—it might be that we should make a judgment to keep it rather than raising income or sales taxes."

"Newspapers have consistently praised Howlett's administration of state affairs and his 'goldfish bowl' policy."

"They have cited Howlett's record of reducing expenses, returning unused appropriations to the state treasury, and his expansion of service provided at less cost to the public."

"He is credited with vigorous follow-up on recommendations submitted by advisory commissions to which he named more than 400 business, labor, agricultural, and other leaders as well as technical personnel."

Howlett was born in Chicago Aug. 30, 1914. As a youth, he was an all-American water polo star and a member of 10 championship teams sponsored by the Illinois Athletic Club.

He attended DePaul University and, while a student there, was named a State of Illinois bank examiner, leaving college to take that job.

In 1937, after three years as bank examiner, he launched his own insurance firm but soon thereafter was named Chicago director of the National Youth Administration in charge of programs for 30,000 youths.

During World II, Howlett served as a military administrator at the Great Lakes Naval Training Station, directing swimming and other training programs for more than 40,000 seamen.

After discharge from the Navy, Howlett served as a Chicago Park District executive.

Howlett was appointed regional director of the Office of Price Stabilization in 1950 and served through 1952 during the Korean War. When OPS was disbanded, he became vice-president of Sun Steel.

In 1954, Howlett served as campaign director for the successful re-election campaign of U.S. Senator Paul H. Douglas.

Howlett has long been a supporter of "progressive policies and reforms and government."

He was one of the earliest advocates of expanding and liberalizing the Illinois college scholarship-tuition program to aid both needy students and the colleges.

The scholarship-tuition program was upgraded by legislative action.

In 1952, when OPS regional director, Howlett began an investigation that helped uncover and smash a racket of selling horsemeat as "beef."

In 1956, when he was a candidate for state auditor he assembled evidence of wrongdoing and provided leads to the Chicago Daily News, which won a Pulitzer Prize that year. The previous auditor went to prison and a drastic change of government was instituted.

Four years later, Howlett was elected auditor of public accounts.

In his 12 years as auditor, Howlett "aggressively" led leadership and administrative action turned Illinois around from one of the best led of all states," associates assert.

In 1963, he secured enactment of a law requiring state and county of more than 10,000 and less than 500,000 population.

In 1967, he succeeded in securing enactment of the Public Monies Accounting Law which extended strict accountability to all local governments not previously covered.

Audits are required to be made annually by professional accountants and are filed with the state.

"State Government Administration," a national magazine, praised Howlett with these words: "While Mr. Howlett is recognized as a symbol of economy in government in Illinois, the officeholder who are audited at the local level have not resented him."

"They have found the advice of professional accountants to be of help in their own work, rather than a harassment."

Under Howlett's administration, the auditor's office acquired sophisticated data processing equipment and a corps of trained personnel to handle the soaring workload.

By 1970, when the workload had more than quadrupled, Howlett's office was using "third generation" computer equipment with 10 fewer employees than his predecessor.

Howlett also:

1. Established a division of field investigators which made unannounced observations of the handling out of state checks to employees, a check against ghost payrollers or other frauds.

2. Required submission of itemized expense accounts by elected state officials.

3. Established a single records center for collection of information and documentary material concerning all state expenditures, making all documents available for public inspection, for microfilm or microfiche viewing or copying, for index system, for easy location of a desired check or voucher.

4. Conducted investigations of the field staff, in cooperation with the Illinois Medical Society, that led to requirements that nursing homes keep more accurate records of financial transactions.

5. Appointed more than 400 Illinois citizens—members of various professions, governmental bodies, public institutions, technical experts—to survey problems and recommendations legislative or administrative. All suggestions were seriously considered and most were adopted, he adds.

His advisory boards concerned Municipal Audit, County Audit, Public Monies, Cemetery Trusts, and Funeral and Burial Trusts (the latter two transferred to Howlett's office) and Data Processing Management.

6. Issued a monthly payroll statistics report covering government agencies and departments, listing employees and the pay received.

7. Won the "Goldfish Bowl" award of legislative correspondents for providing open access to all public information.

As secretary of state since Jan. 8, 1973, Howlett has taken hundreds of steps to improve services while lowering costs to the taxpayer.

Statistics show his office is steadily doing more and more work with fewer and fewer personnel.

Regular employees diminished from 4,121 at the end of December 1972 to 3,667 by Dec. 31, 1975, a drop of more than 12 per cent.

As governor, Howlett would emphasize "a reasonable discussion, not confrontation; workable programs, not political excuses; responsible leadership, not gamesmanship."

He quotes the late Senator Robert F. Kennedy as saying, "The business of parties is not just to win elections. It is to govern."

Howlett adds, "The people want a government that will respond to human needs, humanity, not one that makes the unemployed and handicapped wait weeks for their compensation."

"I want to extend the economy and efficiency I have practiced to a broader area of government. But this is not an end in itself."

"I want to save money by sound administration so it can improve the education of our children, provide for the poor who cannot support themselves, train able-bodied on public aid so they can break the cycle of poverty, provide curricula for mental health patients, make Illinois No. 1 among the states in highway convenience and safety is maintained by law, order and justice."

much higher costs of welfare and crime in the future."

"Education is our future. It determines the quality of our future citizens."

"The quality of our future citizens has a great deal to do with the quality of life in the state of Illinois where we live, work and do business."

"I believe the state has a full commitment to the public education system of Illinois."

"Because education is my highest priority, I am committed to fully funding the school aid formula from the state level as rapidly as we can, because the burden on local property taxpayers has reached its limit in Illinois."

"It is not only a constitutional necessity but a fiscal necessity to place the primary burden of support of state schools on state government."

To accomplish that goal, we must work hard to reduce the budget in other areas and to expand our revenue sources by finding jobs for more people."

"There are lessons in education, too, from primary schools through higher education. We do not have all the money we need for every part of education that wants to spend it."

"There are other important priorities must be set within education."

"At least a while in Illinois, there is not going to be a tax increase. People don't want it, not even for something as good as education."

"Because they have to live, because they have to eat, because they have to pay for their children's education, they will vote for a tax increase."

"They are saying that Springfield must live within its resources and demonstrate that it can run government effectively with what it is given."

"And only when we come to the hard choice as we will someday in the future of Illinois, between a tax increase and a reduction in the quality of our services like schools, law enforcement and transportation, will people talk about tax increases."

"When that hard day comes, it won't be the governor or the legislature making the decision and it's a day we ought to put off as long as we can."

"There are some ways to do it."

"Improving Illinois' economy is one. More jobs mean more taxpayers and lower government costs and the expansion of the revenue base without raising rates," Thompson says.

"We can find some of the money necessary to fully fund the school aid formula if we reorganize. (The school aid branch of state government, for the first time in over 60 years, to eliminate costly duplication of effort and inefficiency.) We institute strong controls to end the fraud in Medicaid and welfare which now costs as high as two hundred million dollars a year."

"We can find some of the money necessary to fully fund the school aid formula if we limit the use of high-priced and outside government consultants."

"Those areas in which the need is absolutely essential."

"We also need a 'sunset law' to compel state agencies to justify their costs or face elimination."

"The question of school financing—like so many other important issues, such as the balanced transportation system, highway construction and the repair/upgrading of farm to market roads—uniquely depends upon the independence of the governor."

Thompson says he is running for governor "because I believe Illinois needs effective leadership." He calls for "conciliation and unity, not confrontation and intrigue."

The eldest of four children, he has been widely acclaimed for his record as a federal prosecutor. In addition to efforts related to public officials' conduct, he also was active against discrimination, illegal drug traffic, vote fraud and pollution.

He is credited with developing improved law enforcement techniques that have been adopted elsewhere.

While an aide of the state's attorney in 1959-64, he argues more than 100 cases before the Illinois Supreme Court.

Thompson has participated in trials of cases involving police corruption and crime of violence.

As a law school associate professor, he helped pioneer programs training young lawyers to enter the field of criminal justice.

In 1969, he was appointed by Attorney General William J. Scott as chief of the Department of Law Enforcement and Public Protection. He served in that post until being appointed first assistant U.S. attorney in June 1970.

Thompson has lectured widely on the administration of justice and government.

He is the author of numerous articles in professional journals and is the co-author of four textbooks on criminal law and criminal justice.

The candidate says, "Because government consists of more than one man, more than one branch, a politician can rarely fulfill his 'word of honor,' and so he ought not, in my view, freely give promises."

"I will give only one. If elected governor of Illinois I will serve with honor and try to do the very best I can."

"That was the only promise I made to the people when I became the United States attorney, Judge me, at least in part, by that."

"Government cannot continue to grow endlessly without an immediate threat to the public purse and a long range threat to our liberties."

"Big government is not good government. More money spent does not guarantee wise government. The next governor must manage government and control its costs."

"The next governor cannot double the budget in two and a half years, and spend our bank account down to zero, or near it."

"The next governor can use some lessons from our comptroller, George Lindberg, and I have been taking them."

Thompson comments, "This does not mean parsimony. Pennies can be pinched without depriving Illinois of the necessities of life."

"Edmund Burke said it well 175 years ago: 'The economy is the distributive virtue, and consists not in saving but selection. Parsimony (and, I will add, acts across-the-board) require no prudence, no sagacity, no powers of combination, no comparison, no judgment.'"

"I trouble with Springfield today is that we have no prudence, no sagacity, no powers of combination, no sound judgment."

"Government, you may be sure, will continue to spend. But it must spend only what we have, and then only in a priority fashion."

"The things government does are more important than others. Education is one; law enforcement is one; transportation and highways are others."

"What government seeks to do for our people must be to save the victim from the machinery of government must be overhauled and consolidated."

"Improving Illinois' economy is one. More jobs mean more taxpayers and lower government costs and the expansion of the revenue base without raising rates," Thompson says.

"We can find some of the money necessary to fully fund the school aid formula if we reorganize. "I come to politics and government with few prejudices and even fewer prejudgments. Whether ten minutes or ten years old, if governmental programs do not work they must be gotten rid of."

"If someone else can do it better, governmental programs must be gotten rid of—we cannot afford them."

"We must encourage the growth and expansion of commerce and industry in Illinois. We have not done enough. We are losing jobs. We are eroding our tax base."

"We are discouraging capital, management and labor alike. We cannot continue to stand 35th among the states in terms of business attractiveness."

"We dare not fall behind neighboring states which believe in our capital and our jobs from across their borders."

"While we cannot abandon our concerns for the environment or for the protection of our people, neither can we unnecessarily regulate, or harass, or discourage industry and its profitable operations."

"This is not a matter of concern to industry alone. It concerns the working man—union and non-union."

"I believe we must reshape and refashion our criminal justice system, to protect us from crime, it doesn't work well."

"One of the system's goals is to quickly, and efficiently, and fairly adjudicate guilt or innocence. It does not work well."

"If one of the system's goals is to rehabilitate and reduce criminal behavior which can be altered, the system is not working well."

MICHAEL J. HOWLETT

Michael J. Howlett, 62, was elected secretary of state in 1972 after serving 12 years as the elected auditor of public accounts. He defeated Governor Daniel Walker in the 1976 primary and is the Democratic nominee for governor.

"The only Democrat in Illinois history elected to four consecutive four-year terms of statewide office, he now seeks the two-year governor term that will be decided Nov. 2."

Associated with business and public administration since 1940, he and his wife live in Chicago and have six children and four grandchildren.

A former steel company vice-president, Howlett also has held positions with the National Youth Administration, Navy, park district and Office of Price Stabilization.

Howlett says, "The key issue before us during this special two-year term is determining how the state can fund education without a tax increase."

"As inflation causes property values to rise, dramatic increases in property taxes based on those values are expected."

"Since the state income tax became law, the state's share of school support has risen from 26 per cent to nearly 50 per cent. But that progress has slowed in recent years."

To reverse this slowdown, the state must first achieve full funding of the resource-equalization formula.

"How can we fund programs like education without increasing taxes?"

"By reexamining all state spending closely and by diverting unused resources to meet our educational obligation."

"At my suggestion, a bipartisan transition committee began work on this three months before the election—not starting in November when there is too little time."

Quad-City firms toured by teachers

About 900 teachers toured local industries yesterday during Business-Industry-Education (BIE) Day, sponsored by the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce and its Education Committee.

Some teachers viewed manufacturing operations at American Steel Industries, A.O. Smith Corp., Conaco, Granite City Steel, Laclede Steel, the Nestle Co. and Caise Steel Co. Others toured and studied operations at Illinois Bell Telephone Co., Illinois Power Co., St. Elizabeth Hospital, the Tri-City Regional Port District, Wilbur Waggoner Equipment Co. and the Ed Moore Construction complex, including American Sheet and Strip Co., Lakeside Roofing and Ed Moore Construction.

The event was the first of its kind since 1959.

Teachers heard a talk by Robert D. McBride, president of Granite City Steel, on the economy and on the competitive free enterprise system.

Public and parochial teachers from most Quad-City area schools participated.

In the event of inclement weather, the contest judging segment will be held beneath the canopy of the Granite City Steel—First Granite City National Bank building on the 20th and State streets side, the chairman advised.

Marchers will proceed from the City Hall to State Street, south on State to 19th Street, along 19th to Edison Avenue and north on Edison back to the City Hall.

Parents of children walking to the parade area are being urged to make sure their youngsters can see and be seen when crossing streets, Police Chief Ronald Veizer said.

He suggested that all youngsters, whether trick or treating in a neighborhood, or walking to and from the Moose Halloween parade, wear bright colors or have iridescent patches applied to costumes to enable motorists to better see the youthful figures.

Masks and head coverings should be worn so not to obscure the child's vision, Chief Veizer added.

is discussed Wednesday by the 1976 Business-Industry-Education Day guest speaker, Robert D. McBride, president of the Granite City Steel Division of National Steel Corporation. form at 11 a.m. at the Venice-Madison American Legion Home, while that in Alton will form at Riverview Park and proceed through Wood River, Roxana and Edwardsville before coming to Granite City.

Meanwhile preparations were continuing at the office of County Clerk Evelyn Bowles for Tuesday's general election. Voting machines were being distributed to the county's 197 precincts this week.

Election polling places will be open from 6 a.m. until 6 p.m. Tuesday.

A heavy vote is anticipated in the election balloting based on the number of new registrations received this year, and the number of absentee ballots for which applications have been made.

The deadline for applying for absentee ballots by mail is 5 p.m. today, but absentee ballots may be cast in person at the county clerk's office in Edwardsville until 5 p.m. Monday.

Barge traffic uninterrupted

Barge traffic on the Mississippi River and in the Chain of Rocks Canal is not expected to be hampered by repair work until mid-December when the main lock at Locks 27 at Granite City will be closed about 105 days for repairs.

The auxiliary lock at Locks 26, Alton, will be closed about 12 hours Wednesday, Nov. 3, for replacement of the lower miter gate, but that work is not expected to delay river traffic more than a few hours.

Bids are being sought for main locks repair work at Locks 27 and contracts should be awarded next month for the mid-December through March repair work.

Only eight tows waited to be locked through Alton this morning and the Granite City locks reported no backlog.

Halloween party Friday at center

On Friday, the Salvation Army Corps, 3007 E. 23rd St., will host a Halloween party. The party, which begins at 7 p.m. and ends at 9 p.m., will be free of charge and is open to the public.

During the past two weeks, members of the Salvation Army Corps Community Center have been making Halloween pictures, posters and exhibits in preparation for the party. Special prizes will be awarded for "most original costume," "scariest costume" and "funniest costume."

Other events will include games, a haunted house exhibit, and a visit from the "great pumpkin."

For more information, these interested may call the Salvation Army Corps at 451-7957 or stop at 3007 E. 23rd.

Grand opening at car agency

Melanie Asadorian of Granite City, the 1976 Miss Madison County Fair Queen, will serve as hostess Saturday during grand opening ceremonies of Granite City Dodge's new car sales lot at 3653 Nameoki Road between 10:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m.

Sectional soccer competition begins

Team pairings for the Illinois High School Association sectional soccer tournament, being conducted by Jacksonville High School, have been changed for the 16 participating schools, including tournaments originally slated today for both GCHS North and GCHS South.

GCHS North was to have played host to Gibault of Waterloo at four o'clock today, and GCHS South was to have hosted the East St. Louis Senior High-Springfield Southeast game winner at four today.

The revised schedule for today's opening round games has North's Steelers playing at Waterloo Gibault at four, and South's Warriors playing at the home field of the East St. Louis Southeast game winner at four o'clock.

Other team pairings for today's competition are: East St. Louis Assumption at Springfield High, St. Paul of Highland at Cahokia, Quincy Notre Dame at Edwardsville, Springfield Lanphier at Jacksonville, Waterloo High at Alton and Collinsville at Quincy High School.

Quarterfinal contests may be played either tomorrow or Saturday, depending upon a date agreed to by participating schools.

A Warrior victory today would pit South in a quarterfinal game tomorrow at 4 p.m. against the Assumption-Springfield game winner at the GCHS South field.

Providing the Steelers win today, North will host at 2 p.m. Saturday the Lanphier-Jacksonville game victor at GCHS North field.

Quarterfinal wins by Granite City schools would advance the Warriors to a semifinal game at 7:30 p.m. Nov. 2 at Jacksonville, and the Steelers into a semifinal game at 7:30 p.m. Nov. 3 at Jacksonville.

The sectional title contest will be played at Jacksonville at 2 p.m. Nov. 6, with the victor advancing into state tournament play Nov. 12 and 13 at Maine East High School, Park Ridge, Ill.

Ties limit Steeler soccer wins to 12

Coach Robert Kehoe's soccer Steelers enter today's sectional play with a 12-3-4 record, having played Collinsville to a 1-1 deadlock in double overtime Monday evening at Kahok field.

Kehoe notes that due to sectional competition starting today, GCHS North has canceled a scheduled contest across the river at McCluer North High School.

Monday's game marked the second time this season the two schools have tied. On Oct. 4, Collinsville and North battled to a scoreless deadlock.

The Kahoks got on the scoreboard first Monday, 17-30 left in the second quarter. Steeler Eric Painter tied the game with 102 remaining in the third period, assisted by Eric Thornburg.

The coach noted that North's goal was the result of a foot race between Thornburg and a Collinsville player.

During a scramble for possession near midfield, the ball popped loose and bounced toward the Kahok goal, with Thornburg and his opponent in pursuit.

Thornburg won the race, flipping the ball over his head and behind him to Painter 18 yards from the goal while Kahok goalkeeper Bill Swipe was running outward. Painter slipped past the defender for the score.

The game then turned into a defensive battle," says Kehoe. "We mustered the only scoring attempt in overtime play."

Overall, Collinsville attempted to score eight times, forcing North's Mike Hill to prevent five shots from entering the net. Swipe stopped three of North's five shots-on-goal. Goals are not always involved in the saves.

North committed the most fouls, 20-14, and the Kahoks blanked the Steelers on corner-kicks executed, 7-4.

Soccer Cougars in road contest

The Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville soccer team has three more scheduled games. The Cougar kickers will play at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee Saturday afternoon and the next day then will be in the Windy City to take on the University of Illinois-Chicago Circle Chicks in a Sunday afternoon game.

The Cougars will wind up their regular season Saturday night, Nov. 6, at Busch Memorial Stadium against the St. Louis University Bills in the annual Bronze Boot Game.

No 3 ranked nationally, SIUE lost 1-0 to Quincy College in weekend soccer at Cougar Field, Quincy, rated No. 16 in the United States, won on a goal by Neil Fredericksen with three minutes and 42 seconds left in the game. The series between SIUE and Quincy is now 4-1.

Most of the SIUE players felt that the game was probably their best in their last four outings. The Cougars outshot the Hawks, 38-18, and had a huge advantage in corner kicks, nine to four.

Fall Warrior award dinner

Roger Smith, athletic coordinator, has announced that GCHS South will hold its annual fall sports awards banquet in the school's cafeteria on Monday, Nov. 22, starting at 6 p.m.

Warrior athletes in football, soccer, golf and cross-country will be honored. The dinner is set for 6 p.m. and award presentations will follow at 7 p.m.

Persons desiring to attend both the dinner and ceremonies may purchase tickets at $2.25 per person at the door on the night of the event—or at the school's main office starting today. Those planning to attend the award presentations only will not be required to purchase a ticket.

Grid Trojans will visit Breese team

Coach Nick Jakich and his Trojans eleven will travel to Breese tomorrow night for a seven o'clock confrontation with Mater Dei High School. It will be Madison's only Friday night contest of the season.

The Knights of Mater Dei, coached by second-year mentor Bob Larsen, will pit their ground game against Madison's balanced ground and air attack.

The Breese squad has put eight touchdowns on the scoreboard thus far against seven opponents — seven TDs on running plays — for a 2-4-1 record.

Madison Quarterback Joe Piechociński has thrown four TD aeriels and executed ground plays which resulted in three TDs. The Trojans are winless in seven outings.

The Knights opened the 1976 season with a 53-6 loss to Mascoutah and then defeated Greenville 19-6.

Following a 13-0 shutout by Quincy Notre Dame, Mater Dei won 21-13 over Triad and played to a scoreless tie with East St. Louis Assumption before losing 53-0 to Chatham Glenwood and 47-7 to Alton Marquette.

Quarterback Tom Gonsalves, a 6-2, 160-pound senior, who filled the position late last season and passed for 510 yards and having caught aeriels to a 3-7 year, has connected thus far in 1976 for 204 yards in the air. He also hauled in a 55-yard TD aerial on a halfback option play.

Gonsalves is a scrambler, scoring two TDs on runs and getting two points on a run to lead the team in point-making.

Of the 751 yards Mater Dei has gained on the ground, Junior Tom Hittgas has rushed for 154 yards but has yet to cross the goal.

Hittgas hit Gonsalves with a TD aerial against Marquette, a game in which the halfback completed eight of 16 passes for a total of 111 yards.

Junior Tom Detmer, who has 33 yards rushing, has picked up two touchdowns. Senior Brian Humphrey has rushed for 66 yards and two TDs, and Dennis Littleken has scored once.

The Knight defense had its most sparkling game against Greenville, holding the opponents to a total of 15 yards rushing.

Madison's Trojans, led by Sophomore James Heard's four TDs, which included a 75-yard kickoff return last week against St. Francis Borgia, has gained 639 yards as a team on the ground and in the air.

Heard leads in both departments, having rushed for 292 yards and having caught aeriels for a total of 151 yards.

South girls 2nd in district tennis

Cahokia's Dana Hawkins took top honors Monday afternoon during singles competition in Illinois High School Association girls' district tennis hosted by GCHS South.

It is the third year she will participate in the state finals, which will be held at Arlington Heights, Ill., tomorrow and Saturday.

Rita and Kathy Kohl, sisters from Belleville East, earned top doubles team honors and will compete at Arlington Heights.

Winners and runners-up in singles and doubles advanced to the state tournament.

Miss Hawkins defeated Julie Garcia of East St. Louis Assumption in the district finals 6-2, 6-0, and the Kohl sisters best teammates Susan Pulley-Donna Farley 7-5, 6-4. All six will go to the state meet.

Although full school teams do not advance, points to determine a winning school were awarded.

The school tallies were, in finishing order: Belleville East, 12, GCHS South 11, Belleville Althoff 9, Cahokia 8 and Belleville West eight each, East St. Louis Assumption four, GCHS North and Waterloo two each, East St. Louis Senior one and East St. Louis Lincoln zero.

GCHS South singles competitors Melody Roseman and Christi Bauer advanced to the semifinals via first-round and second round wins on Friday.

But Miss Roseman lost 1-6, 1-6 to Mary Zellerman of East and Miss Bauer lost 0-6, 1-6 to Miss Hawkins.

South's double doubles advancing past second-round competition were Lori Dochwat-Theresa Hayes and Laura Gabriel-Tammi Depew.

Dochwat-Hayes lost 2-6, 4-6 in semifinal play to the Kohl sisters, and the Gabriel-Depew team lost 1-6, 2-6 in semifinal action to the team of Pulley-Farley.

200 tour Illinois Power facilities

More than 200 persons participated in a tour of Illinois Power Co. facilities in the Granite City service area Sunday afternoon.

Guests visited the business office at Niedringhaus and Delmar avenues, the engineering department and warehouse at 22nd and Adams streets. Illinois Power Co. serves this region and much of the state with natural gas and electricity. Carl E. Mathias is area manager.

THEFT FROM TRUCK

A citizens' band radio and a translator radio were stolen from the tractor-trailer cab of Donald Mello, Moravia, Iowa, parked at the Lindsey Truck Service lot, 1701 Grand Ave., between 8 p.m. and 6:45 p.m. Monday. Both vent windows were broken.

TRY-A-RECORD CLASSIFIED AD

County home repair loans attracting little interest

A program under which thousands of Madison County homeowners could obtain up to $5,000 at 2½ per cent interest to make improvements and repairs to their homes may be a failure unless more homeowners agree to participate in the program, Mary Kane, director of the Madison County office of the Community Development Program, noted in a letter to governmental units this week.

Community Development has made up to $5,000 per family available to low income families which wish to borrow it, but only about 17 families have signed up for the program. "This is a serious problem because housing rehabilitation is an essential part of our community development program, and its failure could jeopardize our entire application," she said in the letter.

A family of eight members could earn up to $14,000 per year and be eligible for the program, taking up to 10 years to repay the loan at 2½ per cent interest. A $5,000 loan, paid back in 120 months at $51 per month, would cost a total of $6,100. A conventional loan over the same period would have payments totaling $9,556, so the low-interest program would save the family $3,456 by participating in the program, Mrs. Kane noted.

The program is restricted to owners of single-family homes in Madison County with total incomes within the limits specified.

A homeowner living alone may earn up to $7,000 per year; a family of two up to $8,450; three up to $10,100; of four up to $11,200; of five up to $11,900; of six up to $12,600; of seven up to $13,300 and of eight or more, up to $14,000, and still qualify.

Although there are priorities for who will receive the available money, the small number of applications, thus far, indicates that all qualifying applicants will have an excellent chance of receiving the low-interest funds, Mrs. Kane said.

Should the applications exceed the money available, priorities will be given to larger families, the elderly and female heads of households.

Priorities also will be assigned to exterior work and interior items that threaten the health and safety of the occupants.

Proof of ownership of the home, even if it is mortgaged, will be required as well proof of a current homeowner's insurance policy and a copy of the applicant's 1975 income tax return as proof of income.

Among the projects which will be eligible are structural repairs to foundations, beams, joists, columns, stairs and porches, roofs, chimneys and floors.

Modernization of plumbing, heating, water heaters, lighting and wiring and major appliances also will be eligible as will insulating ceilings, walls and floors, repairing or replacing windows and doors and adding storm windows or doors.

General upgrading projects will be eligible, including painting, replacing siding, trim or roofing, demolishing guided porches, garages or outbuildings which are not economically repairable, and other improvements.

Interior work may include plaster, walls and ceiling, flooring, painting and wall papering and other work.

All work performed will be under contract with workmen meeting the state's standards. The program is being funded by the Community Development program and by German Federal Savings and Loan Association, 345 East Broadway, Alton, Ill., 62002.

Application forms are in a booklet on the program which are available in post offices, general relief offices, city halls and many other public buildings throughout the county, Mrs. Kane said.

UNEXPECTED VISITOR. This large, red Irish setter stands guard at the side of a Halloween "dummy" whom the dog apparently adopted as temporary master on the front porch at the home of Mrs. B. J. Rodgers, 2205 Elm Ave. Mrs. Rodgers placed the dummy on the porch as a Halloween decoration Sunday evening. A short time later the dog appeared, stationed himself beside the dummy and remained there most of the time until Monday evening when his owner drove by, saw the dog and took him home. Mrs. Rodgers said the never had seen the dog before.

Students to give blood

Students of Granite City High Schools North and South who are 17 or over will give blood on a voluntary basis to the American Red Cross.

The Student Council of both schools are sponsoring the project.

The bloodmobile will be at South on Monday, Nov. 1, from 9 a.m. until 2 p.m. and at North on Wednesday, Nov. 10, from 9 a.m. until 2 p.m.

Both student councils have set a goal of 100 pints at each school.

Under Illinois law, a person who is 17 years of age or older may give blood.

Smorgasbord at Polish church

It will be like "heaven" for a gourmet, according to Mrs. Ann Blenski, chairwoman of the annual public smorgasbord to be held Sunday at the Sacred Heart Polish National Catholic Church, 930 Reynolds St., Madison.

Members of the church will prepare such things as Polish pierogi (stuffed noodles), Polish golabki (stuffed cabbage), Polish sausage, fried chicken and roast beef in addition to many side dishes and desserts.

Tickets are $3.50 for adults, and $1.75 for children. Serving will be from 11 a.m. until 6 p.m. with carryouts available.

Propose water line for Cloverleaf fire hydrants

Louis Whitsell, supervisor of Nafneki Township, asked the Town Board of Auditors Monday night to consider appropriating about $17,000 in the next fiscal year's budgets to have a water line installed to the Cloverleaf Addition southeast of Madison, adequate in size to allow the installation of fire hydrants there.

In a letter to Whitsell from the Interurban Water Co., it was estimated an eight-inch-diameter line would be required to be installed underground 2,325 feet from the nearest adequate water hookup in the Steven Maeras Industrial Park.

The larger water main to the subdivision would allow four fire hydrants to be installed, which should be adequate to protect most homes in that area, the letter noted.

The water company's estimate of the cost for the work was $16,925, according to the letter. The letter was referred to the township's finance committee for study.

Whitsell also noted he has received information that the township will be eligible for federal revenue sharing funds next year which may be used for the work.

Plans for the third year spending of Community Development grant funds also are due to be submitted in the near future and possible Community Development projects are to be explained at a Nov. 9 meeting in Edwardsville.

Some discretionary funds from the second year of the Community Development program also are available for priority projects, Whitsell explained.

Whitsell also told the board of a new federal program, the Antirecession Fiscal Assistance Act, which will make grants totaling $1.25 billion available after July 1, 1977, to governmental entities in areas of high unemployment.

Based upon the formula for funding and an unemployment rate approaching the 9 per cent mark in the St. Louis metropolitan area, Whitsell estimated the township could be eligible to receive about $4,000 to $5,000 from the new program.

He noted the money is to be used for basic services now being provided, but present programs can be expanded, if it will employ more people.

The money will be allocated during five quarters, and will vary as the rate of unemployment fluctuates, Whitsell explained.

Nameoki taxpayers pay $1.3 million

Richard Peck, tax collector of Nameoki Township, collected $1,301,275 in taxes and released a total of $1,303,362 to taxing bodies in the township, he told the Nameoki Town Board of Auditors in a final report Monday night.

He reported $913 was refunded for taxes paid in duplicate or reimbursements due. That total included $262 to Chouteau Township Tax Collector Charles Lexow; $187 to Granite City Township Tax Collector Paul Rutledge; $205 to Mary Anderson and $257 to Pamela Fisher.

Disbursements to taxing bodies included $653,886 to Granite City School District 9, $78,142 to Collinsville School District 10, and $76,884 to Madison School District 12.

Other disbursements included $124,419 to George Musso, county treasurer; $82,645 to Nameoki Township town funds; $76,147 to Nameoki Township highway funds; $66,164 to the East Side Levee and Sanitary District, and $22,840 to the city of Madison for road purposes.

Also, $3,420 to Collinsville for road purposes; $2,220 to Pontoon Beach for road purposes; $6,924 to the State Park Fire District; $468 to the State Park Street Light District; $1,637 to the Miracle Manor-Belleville Street Light District; $770 to the Canteen Creek Drainage District; $855 to the Granite City Park District; $45,738 to the Long Lake Fire Protection District, and $40,645 to the Belleville Area College District.

Stanford heads state Baptists

Keith W. Stanford of Granite City will be elected president of the Illinois Baptist State Association at its annual convention this week at Marion, Mo.

Stanford, who is missions director for the Madison County Baptist Association, succeeds Wendell Garrison of Fairview Heights, who completed two years in the position. Garrison is a former Granite Cityan.

As president, Stanford will preside at the annual sessions of the State Association, which includes 900 member churches throughout Illinois.

He will serve as chairman of the association's 72-member board of directors, which meets semi-annually at the association's headquarters building in Springfield.

Stanford, a Baptist minister, has served two area churches as pastor — Suburban Baptist Church in Granite City and First Baptist Church in Bethalto.

segments of the population, Thompson pledged he will be "owned by no one" and instead will be able to sit down with labor, business, organizations and others as an impartial governmental leader.

Thompson conceded that he has tried to avoid making campaign promises that cannot be fulfilled, but said he will strive to meet some of the promises made by previous officials, not only because various projects are needed but because this can reduce citizens' cynicism about government.

While avoiding a flat ban on future tax increases, the GOP nominee stressed that sound economies can be achieved in the operation of state programs.

Government has no right to propose higher spending levels when there is widespread waste and inefficiency, he asserted.

Thompson said he would assign many liaison responsibilities to the lieutenant governor, and denied that any effort is being made to assure "low visibility" of nominees.

Dave O'Neal in northern Illinois campaigning.

After 16 months of non-stop activity to meet and persuade voters, the candidate said he and all who are helping him feel they should continue at least a small pace until the election day. "We're not going to do any coasting," he told the Press-Record.

He said, however, that he is willing to alter his personal schedule to fit his campaign visits to Illinois.

Thompson pledged to help solve economic and employment problems of each area, and noted that adverse factors vary — involving high wages in one region, sexists in another and other services elsewhere.

He pledged to help achieve either repair or replacement of the Alton locks and dam, and noted that the federal General Accounting Office has not yet completed its analysis of the project.

He added that the Department of Business and Economic Development will be beefed up to work with unions, industry groups, shippers and others to spur job growth.

BURGLARY SUSPECTS HELD

One 17-year-old and two 16-year-old juveniles were arrested at 11:15 p.m. Wednesday and are to be charged with burglary of Odel's Iron and Metal Co., 100 State St., Venice. Responding to burglar alarm, Venice and Madison police went inside the building and found one 16-year-old hiding on a shelf in the main office. The two others were arrested near the scene.

CAR DOWNS POLE
A hit and run motorist struck and broke a utility pole on Madison Avenue just northeast of the main fire station at 2:20 a.m. Wednesday, downing power lines and knocking the pole down. The car left the scene. Police found pieces of a black grill and some blue paint at the scene.

Arvin Saunders, executive director of the St. Louis Metropolitan Airport Authority, is in Philadelphia, Pa., today serving on a three-man examining board to assist the city of Philadelphia in the selection of a new director of the city's two airports. tended.

"In all other respects, the current association contract is equivalent to or better than the contracts in effect with competitive employers. And it will remain the equivalent of these other contracts at the end of the proposed three-year period, based on the offer made by the association."

"In addition, many of the competitors are non-union. Apparently, the union has treated the 15 stores as second-class citizens for some time and continues this basic philosophy."

Charles Tosh, business agent of Local 433, told the Press-Record this morning, "The merchants are not doing the community any good looking out the employees not on strike. They should be allowed to work, with any increase being retroactive after a settlement."

He said the clerks rejected a three-year contract, which would have started Oct. 1, providing 14 cents more per hour in the first year, another seven cents the second year and an added five cents the third year.

Tosh said he disagrees that clerks here are the highest paid in the area. He contended that the local offered to settle for the same rate of pay used in another nearby community and merchants rejected that offer as being too high.

"We are willing to give up quite a bit to keep the downtown merchants competitive with the shopping centers and other areas."

"We agreed to remove all night working restrictions and to reduce the Sunday pay from double pay to time and a half, the same as shopping center employees," Tosh said.

"Our wage proposals have never been demanding. We are asking about the same as the shopping center employees, or a little less," he asserted.

"The lockout was not our idea."

"We decided to strike against one employer who was an independent, not a multi-unit store, because the independents are taking the brunt of this. We do not want to close the downtown area," Tosh concluded.

He said he will be in downtown Granite City this afternoon to talk to some of the store operators and attempt to resolve the dispute. Negotiating sessions also are to be scheduled, he said.

Drop 19 cases in aid probe

Illinois Public Aid director James L. Trainor has announced that Illinois and Michigan have entered into a cooperative agreement to curb recipient fraud.

Trainor also announced that recipients who allegedly received assistance in both Illinois and Michigan are being notified that their cases are being cancelled. Information concerning the cases will be turned over to the appropriate law enforcement authorities for possible prosecution in both states.

Trainor said, "To cancel cases is not enough. Persons receiving duplicate assistance are committing fraud and should be referred to law enforcement authorities for prosecution."

"The success of this crossmatch indicates a continuing need for interstate cooperation. The department will exchange recipient information at least semi-annually."

The fraudulent cases were discovered as a result of a computer crossmatch. Illinois sent computer tapes with recipient information to Michigan for a crossmatch with the Michigan client data base. The computer runs began on Sept. 25 and were completed on Sept. 3 of this year.

After the initial run, 45 cases were identified as possible fraud cases. Of those identified, both of Illinois and Michigan departments' investigative staff determined 19 to be cases of duplicate assistance.

Cancellation of the 19 cases will result in savings of $5,023 a month in Illinois and $5,351 a month in Michigan.

In addition to Michigan, Trainor said, the department is working with Indiana and Missouri on crossmatches of recipient information. The department has contacted all other bordering states attempting to develop ways to control recipient fraud by receipt of assistance in more than one state at the same time. All states showed willingness to cooperate and exchange information as appropriate.

Rules county cannot reverse approval of zoning permits

A legal opinion that Madison County can not reverse its approval of a special use permit for dentists' offices at Maryville Road and Clinton Drive, was expressed by Madison County Assistant State's Attorney Dean Sweet during a meeting of the county board's land use committee Thursday.

Residents of that area are objecting to the county's approval of the permit for the dentists' offices, but an attempt at last week's county board meeting to reverse approval of the zoning permit was unsuccessful as it was pointed out the county's zoning code has no provision for reversing rulings.

Louis Whitsett, a member of that committee, said he feels the dentists — Dr. Jack J. Miller and Dr. Mark Friederich — used the wrong part of the ordinance in requesting the special use permit as a "home occupation of a professional and service office."

Whitsett confirmed at Thursday's meeting that the requirements of that part of the ordinance will necessitate the building of a home in which not more than one-fourth will be for the offices.

"I don't believe they can build a house large enough to put six dentists' chairs in one-fourth of it. Their lot is not that large," Whitsett contended.

The committee instructed County Zoning Administrator Paul Hawkins to wait for the dentists to apply for a building permit, at which time he should study the construction plans and determine if the plans meet the permit guidelines.

Unless a home containing offices in one-fourth or less of the floor space is planned, the building permit can not be issued, under the terms of the special use permit, the committee members contended.

Lake being stocked at atom plant

Even though the lake will not be completed for about three years at the Clinton nuclear station, Illinois Power Company is preparing for that day by already stocking fish in three ponds.

William S. Brennenman, land use and conservation supervisor at Illinois Power, and James Smithson, an aquatic biologist with IP, in late October placed in the ponds 620 largemouth bass, 3,000 bluegill and 3,000 redear.

The fish came from the Illinois Department of Conservation fish hatchery at Little Grassy Lake in southern Illinois.

The fish are fingerlings — about the size of a finger. The State Department of Conservation has used a fish piscicide to poison the fish that were existing in the ponds prior to IP's stocking the fish.

If the existing fish had not been destroyed by the piscicide, the new fingerlings would have been destroyed before they had a chance to grow, it was explained.

The fingerlings will remain in suspended animation in the ponds until the lake fills, and the size of the fish will be governed only the size of the ponds.

The fish will stay there until the dam is closed and lake fills. Once the rising lake inundates the ponds, the fingerlings will be liberated and they will be large enough to escape the predators.

These fingerlings then will be large enough to prey on the indigenous fish in the lake.

The company has plans for more than 250,000 fish for its 5,000-acre Clinton lake and this stocking is only the first in a series.

Brennenman said, "This is only the beginning. We hope this will provide balance between the predators and the prey."

The first unit at the Clinton station is scheduled to go into operation in 1981, with the dam scheduled to be closed in 1977 and the lake taking anywhere from eight months to three years to fill depending on the weather.

A dam below the confluence of Salt Creek and the North Fork of Salt Creek, six miles east of Clinton, will impound the water.

As well as stocking fish in three ponds, IP also has planted 250,000 trees on the site. The trees include European Black Alder, Sycamore, River Birch, Green Ash, Pin Oak, Red and White Pines and Red Cedar.

Nayiri Armenian dancers at South HS Sunday

The first appearance in the Midwest states by the Nayiri Dance Group from New York City at 1:30 p.m. Sunday here will launch a series of four special programs saluting ethnic culture in this area during the Bicentennial Year.

The renowned dance troupe which presents authentic Armenian dances will perform at 1:30 p.m. Sunday in the auditorium at Granite City High School South.

The committee also voted to instruct the county's Zoning Board of Appeals to notify all owners of adjoining parcels when it reaches a decision on rezoning or a special use permit for any parcel. The adjoining landowners then will have an opportunity to express their views before the County Board acts on each request.

Bogossian, chairman. Tickets cost $3 each and may be obtained between 10 a.m. and 5:30 p.m. through Saturday at 903 Niedringhaus Ave., or by calling 451-4853.

Immediately following the Nayiri performance, patrons may visit a cultural display of art works, artifacts and authentic Armenian food in the South cafeteria.

Sunday's presentation by the Nayiri Dance Group, entitled "A Dance Trip Through Armenia," has been performed at New York's Carnegie Recital Hall, the Democratic convention in Atlantic City, N.J., where members met President Lyndon Johnson, on six occasions at the New York World Fair and in Convention Hall, Philadelphia and New York's Town Hall.

Most recently, the Nayiri dancers performed at the New York Bicentennial Heritage Festival at Rockefeller Center on July 3, representing the Armenian people in a 50-nation salute.

"The Nayiri group is booked solid for the next year and we are very fortunate to have the dancers come here for a single performance," Miss Bogossian said.

Formed in 1963, the Nayiri Dance Group has achieved the distinct reputation of being the most-renowned Armenian folk dancers performing in the United States, the chairman said.

Its 35 members are dedicated to the perpetuation of the folk dances of Armenia and through its use of authentic costumes, the group often is described by viewers as "elegant."

Directing the dancers in Novare Hambarian, who is acclaimed as one of the foremost interpreters of the Armenian folk dance.

She has instructed various dances brought from the villages of Sepastia, Falou, Van, Erzerum, Erzinga and other historical sections of Armenia and has choreographed new dances for the Nayiri troupe.

Miss Bogossian said the Armenian cultural program is being presented in commemoration of the American Bicentennial and is being supported, in part, by a grant from the American Revolution

Administration and the Illinois Bicentennial Commission, a state agency.

Larry Beyer, Todd Griffen and Paul Rhodes won prizes for "best" costumes at Cub Pack 17's Halloween party and October meeting held last week in Marshall School gymnasium. All the Cub Scouts and many adults attended the event in costume.

Several games were played to "spooky" music, including "poison" apple, a marshmallow-apple string contest and tossing a bean bag through a haunted house window.

Prizes were awarded and "trick or treat" bags of popcorn and candy were distributed by mothers of Den 2 cubs. Cider and donuts were served later by Den 1 mothers in the school cafeteria.

Cubmaster Elmer Stille opened the meeting, and Den 2 cubs presented the colors and led the pledge of allegiance.

Ribbons were awarded to those participating in a physical fitness contest in September, including first place ribbons to Timmy Tegel, Jim Clark and Todd Griffen; and second place to Brad Gilbert, Bennie Sanders and Mike Loyet.

A candlelight ceremony was held and achievement awards were presented. Recipients were: Greg Barnett, Paul Rhodes and Ronnie Houston, Bobcat emblems; Bennie Sanders, Wolf badge; and Larry Beyer and Tony Leone, Roundup patches.

Fifty-five parents, cubs and guests were present at the party with Den 2 receiving the "Cubby" award for having the most adults present.

Halloween artwork made by the boys was displayed, including pumpkins, ghosts, goblins and witches, among other seasonal characters.

Pinewood derby car kits were given the cubs to create their own machines for the annual race in November.

Investiture for new Brownies

Brownie Troop 198, sponsored by Webster School PTA, held its investiture ceremony for new Brownies at St. John United Church of Christ, 2901 Nameoki Road, during the weekend.

The girls involved and the parts they played were: Mary, played by Rhea Kincaid; Betty, by Teresa Kincaid; father, by Tracie Bouch; grandmother, by LeAnn Swigert; Mr. Owl, by Ina Gray; and the applause card and curtain opening and closing duties handled by Karen Sykes. Each of these girls was presented with her one-year service pin prior to the beginning of the play.

Police Explorers thwart burglary; two arrested

Two would-be burglars are being held by Madison police pending court appearances on charges of theft resulting from the alertness of members of Explorer Post 10-4.

Four Explorers were on guard duty at the group's "Haunted Castle" Halloween attraction, 1316 Madison Ave., to prevent break-ins at the building.

Watching from windows, the Explorers noticed the same auto go by on the street and through the alley about six times.

The car stopped near Lee and Andy's Auto Body Shop at 1330 Madison Ave., and the two suspects got out of the car and began "fooling around" with one of the cars at the garage, the boys reported.

The Explorer in charge of the detail gave another Explorer a quarter, the license number and description of the car and had him go to a nearby tavern to call Madison police.

The other Explorer kept the suspects under surveillance, making a note of their descriptions and clothing.

They saw one of the men leave the garage carrying something, get into the car and drive away.

Police arrived and the Explorers gave them the information and direction of travel of the car.

The pair was quickly apprehended.

Reschedule Maryville bid call

Bids for the Maryville Road improvement which will extend Maryville Road from Pontoon Road to Highway 162 will be opened at 10:30 a.m. Nov. 18 at the County Highway Department offices in Edwardsville, it was announced Tuesday.

The newly-scheduled date was set following a meeting in the office of Mayor Paul Schuler at which Schuler, County Highway Superintendent Lester Miller and City Engineer Monroe Grever discussed road extension project. The bid call originally was for Nov. 16, but was rescheduled.

Schuler said the meeting involved a discussion of procedure and right-of-way matters. Both the city and county have acquired all of the right-of-way required for the project, county highway officials said.

The roadway expansion will provide a four-lane highway skirting the eastern edge of Granite City.

sportation that it has approved plans for a similar improvement of St. Clair Avenue from Dale Avenue to Jill Avenue.

The notice also said the DOT has approved the city's appropriation of $32,000 in motor fuel tax to finance the improvement. Concrete curb and guttering installation, widening and resurfacing with asphalt overlay is included in the project.

The council also approved three traffic control ordinances, including a four-way traffic stop at 24th and Adams streets.

The other ordinances provide for two-hour parking on both sides of Lynch Avenue for a distance of 500 feet from the intersection of Maryville Road and Lynch, and on the east side of Country Lane for 400 feet from the intersection of Johnson Road and Country Lane between 9 a.m. and 6 p.m. Monday through Friday.

In other action, the aldermen approved the purchase of four portable red lights for use in the Police Department cars from the Ray O'Herron Co. of Danville on a low bid of $186.

While bids were being presented, Mayor Paul Schuler asked if the lights "are like those that Kojak uses." He was told that they are. The low bid priced the lights at $39 each.

The aldermen also approved the purchase of two police scanners, including the cost of crystals, at a total cost of $301 from Radio Shack of Granite City.

Other purchases for the Police Department included 12 pair of coveralls at $11 each from Carp's Department Store and two smocks at $18.99 each from Leaders Department Store, both on low bids. Purchase of a two-door metal

An expenditure of $250 for fire station now nearing completion at Richmond Avenue and Johnson Road also was approved on a motion by Alderman Earl Baker, chairman of the Fire and Water Committee.

The council adjourned until Monday at 7 p.m., rescheduling next week's session from the usual Tuesday night meeting because of the election.

Sign fee enforcement planned

Immediate enforcement of a city ordinance assessing a fee of $25 per year on each sign that overhangs a sidewalk or other public right-of-way was promised by Mayor Paul Schuler Tuesday night.

Mayor Schuler told the City Council that an enforcement program will be initiated after City Clerk Robert Stevens reported to the aldermen that there are many delinquencies in license fees for overhanging signs, most of them dating back for the full three years that the ordinance has been in effect.

Stevens' report listed 66 Granite City business firms that owe delinquent license fees for overhanging signs, including one tavern with six signs that owes $300 in delinquent fees.

The report said a total of $6,750 is owed by the 66 business firms which included the one with six signs, two firms with three signs, 14 with two signs and the remainder with one sign each.

Most of the firms listed with one sign owe a total of $75, or $25 for each of the three years the ordinance has been on the books.

The license bill was passed in 1973 and since has been a controversial issue. The ordinance, required inspection of the signs as to their safety when application for a license was made. The fee was supposed to be paid after inspection of the signs by the city's inspection Department.

Aldermen Warren Decatur of the Fourth Ward told the council that he believed many of the firm operators had withheld payment of the license fees because the matter was reconsidered by the council about a year ago and referred to the Finance Committee for a study.

Alderman Gerald Parmley of the Sixth Ward noted that "The Finance Committee did make a study of that, but recommended that the ordinance remain in effect until a change is made. We decided at that time to leave it on the books, so the fees should be paid."

Two illegal immigrants surrender to GC police

Two illegal immigrants from Mexico who surrendered themselves to Granite City police at 6:10 p.m. Wednesday were among 16 persons from Mexico arrested in this area yesterday.

Illinois State Police arrested 14 Mexicans living and working in a National City plant yesterday who face action by the U.S. Department of Immigration. Eighteen state police agents made the arrests.

A Granite City officer was patrolling at East 23rd and Henry streets yesterday evening when his car was waived to a stop by two men speaking Mexican.

The officer attempted to talk with them, but was able to determine only that they were illegal immigrants, they were cold and hungry and wished to be arrested.

Further questioning revealed the men, ages 24 and 28, are from Veracruz, Chiapas, Mexico. They said they came to this country about three days ago and came here, partly by rail, seeking work, but were unable to find any.

Officers had difficulty talking with the men, but said it is believed they had not eaten in three days or more. They were fed and were being held this morning in the Granite City Jail until the Department of Immigration takes custody of them.

Car-train crash

George Marshall Wallace, 50, of 2411 E. 23rd St., was injured when his car and a National Steel Corp. switch engine collided on the railroad crossing at Edwardsville Road near 29th Street at 11:35 p.m. Wednesday.

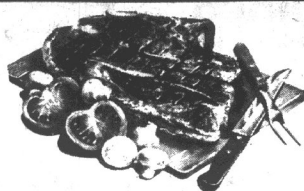

Wallace was charged with careless driving after witnesses alleged his car failed to slow for a railroad man in the intersection with a flare and for the red flashing warning lights. Police said he was found unconscious at the scene and he was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital. At the hospital, he declined x-rays or treatment, despite cuts and abrasions to his forehead and nose.

16 Democrats, 6 Republicans recommended; participation by all voters next Tuesday would assure suitable outcome

The Press-Record today comments on some of the choices facing Quad-City voters in the 1976 general election Tuesday, Nov. 2.

The opinions are offered not in expectation that all those who are endorsed will win, nor in the belief that the recommendations will be followed in their entirety.

Citizens have their own extensive information and many vivid impressions of the candidates. The cause of good government will be advanced if they participate in the balloting and vote according to their individual beliefs and wishes.

No constitutional amendments or other special proposals are to be submitted to Quad-Cityans next week. Voting machines in this community list eight parties and 27 offices to be filled. The comments follow, in ballot order.

PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES

Through the debate series and other oratory, the public has had much opportunity to evaluate the two principal contenders. Their contrasting stands on many of the issues are outlined elsewhere in this issue.

America has not achieved perfection under President Gerald Ford, a Republican, but seems to be headed in constructive directions.

Now that Watergate abuses of power are past, and citizens are alert to the dangers such abuses involve, the principal peril ahead may relate to excessive escalation of government involvement in individuals' decision-making.

Both candidates agree that government can and must do many things while refraining from taking certain other actions, regardless of how well-intentioned the proposals may sound. It's a question of degree, and we believe Mr. Ford—from his federal governmental experience—would be better able than Mr. Carter, a Democrat, to avoid extremes, both domestically and overseas.

VICE-PRESIDENT

Robert Dole (R) of Kansas is recommended.

GOVERNOR

The primary process served its function well this year by producing able contenders for the top office in the state.

Due to the fact that only a two-year term is to be filled, Democrat Michael Howlett is seen by many as best qualified to function immediately; he could serve effectively from the very first day of the term.

Mr. Howlett was able to improve services and reduce costs as auditor and later as secretary of state. The veteran administrator knows the issues affecting this region and has indicated willingness to work hard to resolve local problems.

Republican James Thompson, a gifted prosecutor, has proven he has the courage and intellect to serve well in high office. He has been a brilliantly conceived and implemented campaign, moving him far out in front in all popularity surveys.

By avoiding specific stands this year on many subjects, Mr. Thompson would have unusually wide latitude as governor in seeking solutions. We would have preferred stronger commitments—greater willingness to "stand up and be counted." But we also find him believable when he stresses his wish to seek balance between competing interests.

Mr. Thompson hopes to upgrade public confidence in government by limiting his promises but making sure he "delivers" on what he does pledge. We lean toward him, but note the errors of the outgoing Walker administration should not be blamed on Mr. Howlett; the current secretary of state could perform outstandingly if given the opportunity to serve as governor.

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR

Neil F. Hartung (D) has performed exceptionally despite an awkward political relationship with the governor. His roles in such matters as airport development and service for the aging have been widely admired. He has earned re-election but may not get it. Dave O'Neal (R), his rival, has had a good record as St. Clair County sheriff.

Peaceful nation moving to prosperity

To the Editor: Nov. 2 is "D" day. Yes, the election is the day of decision on who will guide us in the next four years.

President Ford has proved himself to be an effective leader. We are at peace. We have good relations all over the world.

We have a free America, and free enterprise has helped us to grow in spite of federal controls. We are the only nation in the world where a group of people

ATTORNEY GENERAL

William J. Scott (R) in his two terms has broadened the range of service and has become a strong defender of citizens in virtually all the ways they are affected by government, business and organizations.

The volume of his workload and the skill with which it has been handled may be unprecedented in any state at any time in history. Illinois is fortunate to have Mr. Scott in such a vital public office.

SECRETARY OF STATE

Alton J. Dixon (D) of Belleville has brought great credit on this region with his able services in all branches of government, including a leadership role in the Illinois Senate and then a record-shattering performance as state treasurer.

In Illinois, the duties of secretary of state are unusually comprehensive. Experienced far beyond what might seem possible at his relatively young age, Mr. Dixon could serve with distinction in this challenging new position.

STATE COMPTROLLER

George W. Lindberg (R) strongly merits re-election. In addition to the basic duties of the office, he has provided detailed and timely financial analyses and advice that have been of considerable help to legislators and other officials.

MEMBER OF CONGRESS

Melvin Price (D) has represented the Quad-City in Washington for 32 years, a record that speaks eloquently of his devotion to this area. Chairman of the House Armed Services Committee and a leading authority in the field of nuclear energy, Gov. Price is an asset to the 23rd Illinois District and to the nation.

STATE SENATOR

Sam M. Vadalabene (D) has become perhaps the most effective Illinois state legislator. His ability to both recognize major needs and act decisively to meet them has been of immense benefit to this area.

STATE REPRESENTATIVES

Three representatives are to be chosen and the two Democrats are favored to lead the balloting—Joe E. Lucio, Edwardsville, an incumbent legislator, and Jim McPike of Alton. Both are attractive candidates and Rep. Lucio has served with diligence, expertise and the courage of his convictions.

Because of the outstanding General Assembly record of State Rep. Everett G. Steele (R) of Glen Carbon—and because he has competition Nov. 2 from another Republican—the outcome of his reelection in the Republican stronghold of Alton, it is essential that Quad-Cityans make a point of voting for Mr. Steele. The former Granite Cityan, grandson of the late Namesake Mayor Chris Cunniff, has devoted full-time to his legislative duties and has handled them admirably.

COUNTYWIDE ELECTIONS

We tend to prefer the incumbent Democratic officials seeking re-election in Madison County, Circuit Clerk Willard V. Portell, Recorder of Deeds Ronald P. Lucas, State's Attorney Nicholas G. Byron, Coroner Dallas M. Burke and Auditor John L. Kravack.

The first four named are opposed by candidates chosen by the county Republican committee. Several of the GOP aspirants are capable and, if elected, undoubtedly would do a good job.

The county probably would benefit from at least partial restoration of two-party representation, but at the same time it should be noted that the Democrats have nominated qualified and experienced candidates.

MADISON COUNTY BOARD

We favor for re-election Democrats Herbert "Junior" Milton (District 22), Jay D. Maurer (23), Arthur W. "Cooper" Moore (24) and Homer M. Bootman (25).

CIRCUIT JUDGES

To fill the position formerly occupied by retired Judge Fred P. Schuman, we recommend Judge Horace L. Calvo, Granite City (Kannapolis), and Judge Harold R. Clark of Alton.

For retention in office on a nonpartisan basis, we recommend Judge Joseph J. Barr of Wood River and Judge Harold R. Clark of Alton.

Venice to seek $300,000 grant for bridge work

The Venice City Council Tuesday night decided to seek $300,000 from the Economic Development Administration (EDA) under the new Public Works Capital Development and Investment Program.

If granted the funds will be used for the partial funding of rehabilitation work on the Venice approach of the McKinley bridge.

The city of Venice would provide the additional $100,000 necessary to complete the project. The additional $100,000 would include $40,000 from a Community Development Grant.

The council approved building permits for: Jerry Stagg, 1305 Oriole St., adding a porch at a cost of $5,000; Jewell Hampton, 150 South Sixth St., concrete mobile home pad, $600; Harvey McDonald, 565 Fourth St., concrete pad for mobile home.

The police arrest report for September listed 34 male and three female arrests including nine male juvenile arrests. A total of $350 was received from the circuit clerk's office in fines resulting from these cases.

Approval was granted by the City Council No. 1098, Knights of Columbus, to conduct a drive to raise funds for retarded children in the city on Thursday and Friday, Nov. 5 and 6.

Byron pledges action against anyone who gives tampered treats

Madison County State's Attorney Nicholas G. Byron issued a statement Tuesday pledging firm and fast law enforcement against anyone who puts pins, razor blades, drugs, poison or other foreign substances in Halloween candy or other items.

Byron noted special forms and procedures have been explained to local police departments which will be used in the event of such arrests to charge the persons responsible with aggravated battery (a felony) or battery.

Byron's statement follows: "During the past several years I have noted that acts of malicious mischief directed to young trick or treaters has increased.

"Last year several incidents were noted in Madison County where treats given to young children had been tampered with and in some cases dangerous articles, such as razor blades and pins, were hidden inside.

"That type of conduct can easily be characterized as being 'sick.' However, getting upset about it does not prevent the occurrence.

"As state's attorney, I believe it is mandatory that I take action to protect young children who are trick or treating.

"I, therefore, serve notice on any individual who may intend to engage in such mischief that I personally guarantee swift and strong prosecution.

"Area police departments are being provided with criminal complaint forms which have been prepared by my office to be used in charging any person apprehended in an act such as placing razor blades in Halloween candy with the crime of battery or aggravated battery.

"That charge will be used whether or not the candy or other treats is consumed by a child.

"I intend to prosecute on those charges whenever it can be determined that any person delivered a altered treat to any child or adult.

"I caution parents to be especially watchful of the types

Agnew aids Arabs through foundation

To the Editor: Why do not Spiro T. Agnew, governor of the United States, and his alter ego and legal progeny, Education for Democracy, the tax-exempt foundation whose July newsletter "reads like a reprint from an Arab propagandist's

"tear sheet," according to columnists Jack Anderson and Les Whitten, "come clean" with the American public and tell us forthrightly they are paid foreign agents and propagandists? They have not registered as such with the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Continually spewing pro-Arab, anti-Israel propaganda—and all for profit—Agnew and his foundation clearly should consider registering.

But perhaps America has lost its nerve. Can it be that no American business firm offered him a job? Inconceivable.

More likely, none could match the gold-sheathed, diamond-crested dagger and other lavish emoluments given Mr. Agnew by the king of Saudi Arabia while he was vice president.

I fear for our republic if a former, disgraced vice-president—privity to hear, military and industrial secrets while in that office—can blithely take on foreign agent and propaganda activities in secret for foreign powers—countries trying to bring us to our knees through oil embargoes and blackmail.

27th-Madison collections hazardous

To the Editor: I am protesting the collection drives of clubs and various other agencies at 27th Street and Madison Avenue.

I was involved in a minor auto accident at the time the Kiwanis were collecting for peanuts at this location.

I do take responsibility for my actions, and I do know that I caused the accident. However, I was distracted by this collection drive.

I am not putting down the Kiwanis; I am sure that they are a marvelous outfit.

I feel, however, that a door-to-door drive to sell peanuts, or a sidewalk drive in downtown Granite City, would be much safer for all of Granite City.

While at the scene of this accident, I witnessed two more near-accidents.

I am appealing to City Clerk Robert Stevens to stop issuing these permits allowing people to put lives and property in danger.

Area's positive aspects spotlighted

To the Editor: I want to thank you and your staff for the support that you provided for our scouting program during the three years I served as district chairman.

Your continued support and focus on the positive aspects of our communities and our youth is a prerequisite for the success of these programs of the Boy Scouts.

I look forward to working with you in furthering the improvement of our communities.

THOMAS P. LAYLOFF JR., Ph.D.

Mike Howlett friend of Downstaters

To the Editor: Michael J. Howlett—a man for all seasons.

As the general election on Nov. 2 approaches, I would like to say a few words about a friend of most Downstaters, Mike Howlett, candidate for governor.

When you consider that about half of the population of the State of Illinois is in the Chicago area, and any candidate in his or her right mind would love to have the loyal support of the major metropolitan area, you must also understand the world of politics as it is.

Everyone loves a winner, but in order to win an election one must have organizations behind you, such as central committees, local committees, etc.

Because Howlett has the blessings of the mayor of Chicago, there are those who would go against him for that simple reason alone, forgetful of the fact that he is the only Democrat in Illinois history elected to four consecutive terms of state wide office.

His only sponsor for himself, when he was state auditor, Illinois became the "best audited."

As secretary of state, he has saved citizens time and money through more service at lower cost.

For one, see no wrong in the mayor of Chicago, Granite City or other public officials supporting a good person. That's the way the ball bounces right down to your local races.

I would hate to think the voters would let a good person down just because they didn't like Chicago politics and party leaders.

Unemployment checks being delayed

To the Editor: Speaking for myself and the unemployed people of the Tri-City area who are receiving unemployment benefits, these people are starving, missing house payments and want in person several times a week, and getting no credit ratings due to late unemployment checks.

The checks are several weeks late due to the fault of the unemployment offices or their new computerized system.

People can't live on promises from these unemployment offices. Grocery stores and bill collectors don't take promises. Then they tell you it is just getting abused or, like they say, ripped off.

I, Jim Plantz, or as the computer knows me, 320 S. 627, haven't received a check for six weeks.

I called our local office and went in person several times and called Chicago, the main unemployment office.

All I can find out is "sorry," or "the computer is broke" or, "Come back next week and we'll run it through the tube computer."

At every time you go back and stand in line for an hour, they say the computer is broke today and come back tomorrow. Then they tell you it is the Chicago office's fault that you haven't received a check for six weeks, or that you made a mistake when you filled out your form.

But for some strange reason it's never their fault. It's always the victim's fault.

We are supposed to get a check every two weeks, as they tell you when you sign up for unemployment benefits.

The only thing I received in six weeks is two weeks of excuses, every two weeks.

Now, tell me that the unemployed people of the Tri-City area are being treated fairly by this computerized system or by the management of these

Carter, Ford 2 soles, not heels

By ED ARMSTRONG
Do you want to keep the old shoe or replace it with a new one?

For many of the millions of Americans watching the debates between President Ford and Candidate Carter the election day decision may be put in about those terms.

Some may regard that as a homely comparison when we're talking about choosing a president of the United States, but I think it fits the situation.

For the course, we talk in terms of pairs of shoes, however, in this case the simile is better by referring to just one, so I shall take that license.

Gerald Ford is very much the "old shoe" type, he's been around in politics 30 years or so; we got used to him in the Congress, where he climbed to the position of minority leader in the House.

In spite of his disagreements with the present Congress, expressed frequently in the form of vetoes, he is personally on friendly terms with most senators and representatives, particularly the leadership.

This helps him come across as pleasant and genuine. In his years in politics he has taken on a certain shape; the sharp corners are rounded off, and he will bend—up to a point.

His haircut is a throwback to the 1940s and '50s, something that Roosevelt, Harry Truman, John Kennedy and Lyndon Johnson.

American voters have to make up their minds if they want to settle for the known comfort and performance of the old shoe or if they want to take the chance that the new shoe will be a better fit and improve our stride.

Usually when we buy new shoes we can put the old pair in the closet and if we find the new ones don't break in the way we hoped they would, we can bring the old ones back out and wear them.

However, when we decide in November whether the presidential closet will contain gold shoes or softball sneakers, the decision is for which shoe the nation will wear for the next four years.

Will it be the comfortable old shoe or the stylish new one?

Bazaar features floral booth

A "Flower Booth" featuring more than 300 house plants will be one of the main attractions at the annual Christmas Bazaar sponsored by the Altar Society of St. Elizabeth Catholic Church.

"We have plants from A to Z including Aloes and asparagus fern to Zebra, a purple and silver leaf wandering Jew species," according to Mrs. Sharon Loftus, chairman of the booth.

The chairman, her co-chairman, Mrs. Peggy Koerper and committee members, Angie Judy, Donna Yehling, Pat Loftus and Mary Loftus, have been busy potting the many varieties using three 40 pound bags of special potting soil.

Some of the more unusual and most wanted plants to be offered at reasonable prices are:

dieffenbachia, strawberry begonias, piggy-back plant, pickle plant and an air plant which actually lives only on air, Mrs. Loftus reported.

The committee has acquired a large amount of Swedish ivy in three different varieties: spider plants, several different types of ferns, begonias and wandering Jew, which are excellent for hanging baskets, they added.

Mrs. Loftus said the booth will offer a limited amount of pot-pourri rose jars, which is a popular item, although the pot-pourri recipe will be kept a secret.

Committee members staffing the exhibit will be able to advise anyone purchasing a plant, on the important facts about light requirements and watering, the chairman said.

FLOWER POTPOURRI DISPLAY of house plants in decorative containers and unusual hanging baskets to be among 300 species offered for sale at the annual Christmas Bazaar of the Altar Society of St. Elizabeth Catholic Church set for Nov. 13 and 14. Shown with the exhibit is Mrs. Sharon Loftus, front, chairman of the floral booth and her co-chairman, Mrs. Peggy Koerper, on left.

'Mission behind Mill' marks 58 years Sunday

Gospel Mission, 2014 E. 20th St., will celebrate its 58th anniversary Sunday with special services and a musical program from 2 until 4 o'clock.

The public is invited to join the congregation for the celebration, Mrs. Bethel J. Davis, Mission superintendent, said today. Ample parking is available at the rear of the building.

The musical presentation will be given by soloists from the Gospel Choir and the Sanctuary Choir of Emmanuel Baptist Church, under the direction of Bill and Marge Ellisworth.

Dr. George A. Rosenthal of Edgmont Bible Church, a speaker at the local mission for 33 years, will deliver the closing message and meditations.

Soloists will include Miss Elaine Bauer of Glen Carbon, a senior major at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, Miss Susan Hopkins of Maryville and John Sabo of Granite City. Jerome Johnson, a guitarist, also will appear. At 7 p.m. Sunday, the regular service will feature Gary Jarrell, a student minister, as guest speaker.

Known as the "mission behind the mill" by many residents for a number of years, the Gospel Mission was started in the Davis home in 1918. When attendance outgrew the residence, services were held for a time in the old Liberty Grade School.

Sometime afterward, a store was rented on East 20th Street and eventually the Mission was moved into its present building.

At the present time, there are 135 persons enrolled in Sunday School classes at the non-denominational Mission, Mrs. Davis said.

All services are open to the public and are held each Thursday and Sunday evening at 7 o'clock. Church school classes are conducted on Sunday mornings, starting at 9 a.m.

Mitchell Church to show film

"For Pete's Sake!" a film credited as "unique in its capacity to reach out to meet the problems of people," will be shown Sunday, Oct. 31 at Mitchell Assembly of God Church, one mile east of Highway 3 on West Chain of Rocks Road.

The full-length comedy-drama, filmed in Eastmancolor by World Wide Pictures, will be shown once beginning at 7 p.m. and is open to the public at no admission charge.

The film has been seen nationwide by over three million persons in theatre premises, and has been cited by one film critic as "the perfect mixture—it's drama at its boldest, comedy at its lightest, and action at its liveliest. For Pete's Sake! is a family film, not only because it is good family entertainment, but because through its storyline, families can see and feel exactly what is needed to develop deeper understanding and build stronger ties."

For Pete's Sake! stars Robert Sampson, who also starred in The Restless Ones. Picco Scott, as Pete's wife, Marge, is well-known for her Broadway appearances and numerous television roles. John Milford and Sam Groom are both familiar to television audiences. Other featured players include Johnny Jensen as Pete's son, Irene Tedrow as Grandma Harper, and Nicolas Surroy as Skip, the leader of a motorcycle gang.

A cordial invitation is extended to all families of the community by Rev. E. L. Aubuchon who has made arrangements for this special showing.

Lack of bidding challenged

Attorneys for Namekook Township have been asked to prepare written legal opinions on whether a bill for replacing a faulty drainage system at the end of Ivy Lane can be paid legally, although competitive bids were not sought for the $12,000 project.

During Monday night's town board of auditors meeting, Township Supervisor Louis Whitsett criticized Highway Commissioner Albert Bell for authorizing H&H Sewer Service to replace the system without seeking estimates from other contractors.

Bell responded it was impossible to get competitive bids, since contractors were unsure where the old system went, how long it would take to replace with a new system and how many men and pieces of equipment would be necessary to do the work.

He said the contractors could not even prepare an hourly estimate of the work, since they did not know how much equipment would be involved. Whitsett said if Bell had alerted him of the problem, he would have called a special meeting of the town board to discuss the issue.

He said the town board agreed to share in the expense of the drainage improvement, using federal revenue sharing funds, but that the rules of the revenue sharing program require competitive bidding.

"If we do not follow the rules of the revenue sharing program, we can be ordered to pay back all the revenue sharing we have received, plus 10 percent," he continued.

Bell said he called each township auditor when he became aware it was impossible to obtain a firm price and that each appeared the cost would be about $12,000 per day. The contractor told Bell it would be impossible to determine the extent of the work necessary until the second day, he said.

Whitsett said he was not contacted by Bell and said, "As soon as I realized it was going on, I told Al (Bell) he better contact his attorney because I think we have a problem."

Whitsett also criticized Bell for submitting a $1,110 bill for pipe without approval of the Madison County superintendent of highways.

The supervisor told the auditors he did not feel they could legally approve the bill for the pipe until the county superintendent signs it, under state law. He contended all purchases over $1,000 for any project must, by law, be approved by the county.

The township's attorney, H. Carl Runge, told the board he already has submitted a written legal opinion which supports Whitsett's contention.

Bell said he did not feel there would be any difficulty having the county superintendent of highways, Lester Miller, approve the pipe purchase and agreed to submit it for his signature prior to payment.

National Steel earnings up but inadequate to finance expansion

National Steel Corporation earned $29,300,000, or $1.55 per share, in the third quarter ended Sept. 30, Chairman George A. Stinson reported Monday afternoon in Pittsburgh.

For the first nine months of 1976, Stinson said, earnings totaled $70,601,867, or $3.74 per share, on sales of $2,196,188,367. Both primary steel production and shipping of finished products were distinctly ahead of results for the comparable 1975 periods.

Naturally, we are pleased with the continuing rebound our financial results show by comparison with 1975," Stinson said.

"However, the rate of financial return reflected by these results compares very unfavorably with our levels of profitability in 1974 and earlier years, and, indeed, with the average rates of realization by American manufacturing industry generally."

"Impacted as these results have been by continued inflation in our costs without adequate offsetting price relief," Stinson added, "our present level of profitability is inadequate to support needed further expansion."

Third-quarter 1976 sales were $724,266,225, or 32 per cent higher than the comparable 1975 quarter. Nine-month sales were 30 per cent ahead of 1975.

Primary steel production in the third 1976 quarter was 2,790,800 tons, 43 per cent ahead of 1975's third quarter. Shipments totaled 2,205,400 tons, up about 29 per cent.

For the first three 1976 quarters, primary steel production was up almost 24 per cent and shipments were 32 per cent greater than for nine months of 1975.

Ford-Carter views differ on many issues

PRES. GERALD FORD

Gerald R. Ford, 63, has been President of the United States since August 1974, when he succeeded the resigned chief executive, Richard M. Nixon. Mr. Ford seeks a four-year elective term in the Oval Office on Nov. 2.

Born in Omaha, Neb., Pres. Ford received a bachelor's degree from the University of Michigan in 1953 and graduated from Yale University Law School in 1941.

After serving in the U.S. Navy from 1942 to 1946, he practiced law. Elected to the U.S. House of Representatives in 1948, Mr. Ford continued as a congressman until being appointed in 1973 to replace Vice President Spiro Agnew, who had resigned.

During his quarter-century in Congress, he handled a variety of duties, including serving on the Presidential commission that investigated the 1963 assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

Mr. Ford became minority leader of the House in 1965. He was confirmed by the Senate as vice-president in late 1973.

Upon advancing to the Presidency, he appointed Nelson Rockefeller as vice-president.

The President's views on some of the chief issues are as follows:

"My first objective," Ford states, "is to have sound economic growth without inflation."

"We all know from recent experience what runaway inflation does to ruin every other worthy purpose. We are slowing it, we must stop it cold."

"This is not a period of the quick fix," Ford asserts in his 1977 budget message.

"It does not hold out the hollow promise that we can wipe out inflation and unemployment overnight."

"Instead, it is an honest, realistic policy—a policy that says we can steadily reduce inflation and unemployment if we maintain a prudent, balanced approach."

"We are going to get the rate of inflation down to the kind of a level where this country can grow and prosper, and people, whether they are on fixed income or working in a factory, will be able to get on."

"The driving force of our 200-year history has been our private sector."

"If we rely on it and nurture it, the economy will continue to grow, providing new and better choices for our people and the resources necessary to meet our shared needs."

"If, instead, we continue to increase government's share of our economy, we will have no choice but to raise taxes and, in the process, dampen further the forces of competition, risk, and reward that have served us well."

"From the very beginning, I forced Congress to ration or to severely cut back reckless Federal spending programs."

"One of my most important weapons is the veto. I vetoed bills sent to me by Congress and most have been sustained, saving the American taxpayer $13 billion."

"I have done more than talk about trying to get the bureaucracy under control."

"The first decision I made when I became President in August of 1974 was to insist upon a cutback in the projected increase in Federal employment of 55,000. And we achieved that reduction."

"The structure of the federal government is always under review, and the Office of Management and Budget is constantly going into every department to try and get rid of functions and responsibilities in individual departments to improve their management."

"It is a possibility that in the next administration I would undertake something comparable to the Hoover Commission."

When asked if zero-based budgeting would be considered by such a commission, Ford avoided any direct or explicit comment on the concept.

CRIME PREVENTION. Ford pins his hope of crime prevention on the example of "positive, swift, and just punishment."

He believes "certainty of punishment prevents crime."

Ford favors mandatory minimum sentences in crimes involving handguns, in serious crimes like drug trafficking, kidnapping, hijacking, and for repeat offenders who commit violent crimes.

Ford favors the death penalty for the crimes of sabotage, espionage, treason, and murder.

GUN CONTROL. Ford is "unalterably opposed to the registration of gun owners and the registration of guns."

He favors prohibitions on the sale of handguns, banning the import and sale of cheap handguns, strengthening curbs on the sale of handguns (no specific measures specified), and increasing the number of federal firearms investigators.

DRUGS. Ford has sent to Congress a mandatory sentencing bill for narcotics dealers.

Under this bill, sentences are three years for a first offense, six for the second, with no parole permitted.

ABORTION. He opposes abortion "on demand" but believes that it is justified in cases of rape or where the life of the woman was at stake.

Ford said that he would "of course, uphold the law as interpreted by the Supreme Court."

But he also said that he favored a Constitutional amendment leaving the states the task of redefining limits on abortion.

ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE. Ford would increase criminal justice manpower, namely prosecutors and judges.

He also proposed the construction of four new federal prisons to relieve existing overcrowding and provide humane places of incarceration for federal offenders."

CRIMINAL CODE REVISION. Ford has sent to Congress some sections of S. 1 (Senate bill on criminal code revision) "unacceptable."

He says there are some provisions in it that I think have to be modified and maybe several that ought to be eliminated, and that we want in that aren't in it now."

Mr. Ford has not specified the content of the bill he opposes.

ABUSE OF POWERS. On Feb. 18, 1976, Ford issued an executive order which established a new chain of command and operational intelligence agencies.

He believes the order "will eliminate questionable activities on the part of the foreign intelligence agencies while at the same time permit the executive to carry out their vital work of gathering and assessing information."

The executive order includes provisions to:

1. Establish a new Committee on Foreign Intelligence to manage the intelligence community. The Committee is chaired by the Director of the CIA and has jurisdiction over the budgets of intelligence agencies.

2. Set limits on the physical and electronic surveillance of American citizens and on the collection and dissemination of information about them.

3. Prohibit such practices as burglaries, drug tests on unsuspecting humans, and illegal use of tax return information.

In addition to the executive order, Ford has proposed legislation dealing with intelligence activities in the future.

"It is a crime to assassinate or attempt to assassinate a foreign official in peacetime."

"It is a crime to conspire to assassinate a foreign official in peacetime."

office to handle any criminal charges against top government officials."

The special prosecutor would be appointed by the President, with the advice and consent of the Senate, for a three-year term and could be removed by extraordinary means.

GOVERNMENT SECRECY. Basically, I agree with the bill, but I think there should be some guardrails where you're discussing classified information that involves our national security."

"I don't simply say that any meetings, generally, I think should be open to the public. But I think there has to be some safeguard where you're discussing classified information that involves our national security."

HEALTH CARE. "We cannot realistically afford federally dictated national health insurance providing full coverage for all."

"I do envision the day when we may use the private health insurance system to offer middle-income families high quality health services at prices they can afford and shield them from catastrophic illnesses."

"Under Medicare about three million people out of 24 million are affected by catastrophic illness."

"It was a choice between making sure that those people were relieved of the financial and mental burden and putting a slight additional charge on the remainder."

"It is my feeling that they would be willing to pay a little more to get this guarantee of catastrophic illness care."

"I am asking Congress to end the Federal Assistance for Health Care Act which will consolidate Medicaid and 15 categorical Federal health programs into a billion block grant to the States."

"This legislation will achieve an equitable distribution of federal health dollars by providing funds according to a formula giving primary weight to the state's low-income population."

"Let me emphasize that every state will receive more federal funds for fiscal years 1977, 1978 and 1979 under the block grant than it received in fiscal year 1976."

"The Administration on Aging and a number of federal departments and agencies have signed agreements which will help to make available to older persons a fair share of the federal funds available in such areas as housing, transportation, social services."

"The administration feels that the Community Service Employment program, which provides part-time community service jobs for workers 55 years of age and older should be terminated."

"The administration feels that a separate program for the elderly is not needed as they can participate in the Comprehensive Employment Training Act (CETA)."

Coroner candidates debate 'medical examiner' merits

Mrs. Dallas M. Burke, Alton, a funeral director and registered nurse, seeks re-election as Madison County coroner on Nov. 2.

A Democrat, she has held the office for four years. She opposes making the position appointive, saying the public should have the right to choose the coroner and that six-member coroner juries are superior to non-inquest non-jury verdicts.

Mrs. Burke says election of a doctor would not be an economy, since law requires that a separate pathologist be utilized.

She is a 20-county district director of Illinois Coroners' Association. The group is seeking to upgrade the office through training and other activities.

Mrs. Burke works with the state on alcohol and drug abuse programs and is participating in a national study of the infant sudden death syndrome.

She proposes to continue utilizing funeral home employees throughout the county as deputy coroners.

MRS. DALLAS BURKE

Dr. Robert B. Lynn, 64, an Alton physician and surgeon for nearly 30 years, is the Republican coroner nominee Nov. 2.

Serving ten years as president of the Alton Board of Education, he also was instrumental in early planning for Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. He was a member of the board of Shurtleff College until it closed.

Born in South Charleston, Ohio, he studied medicine at the University of Minnesota and Washington University.

The doctor served as a resident physician at the St. Louis City Hospital and became a Presbyterian missionary in China, where he also was an Air Force captain.

Transferred to the Office of Strategic Services, he remained in the China area until his discharge in 1946 as a lieutenant colonel.

Active in Boy Scouting, he has served on the Civic Memorial Airport board. He and wife, Gladys, have three daughters.

DR. ROBERT LYNN

As coroner, Dr. Lynn would seek a medical examiner system. Instead of coroner's juries, questionable deaths would be referred to the state's attorney's office.

The appointive examiner plan would require voter approval. Dr. Lynn is semi-retired and pledges to be an active coroner.

News notes

President Gerald Ford last week signed a bill by Cong. Paul Simon setting a minimum federal payment of 75 cents an acre to ten Southern Illinois counties having national forests or grasslands, to partly offset lack of property taxes.

State Supreme Court majority to be chosen

No Illinois Supreme Court judges appear on the Nov. 2 ballot in Madison County, but three of the seven positions will be filled for ten-year terms in partisan competition and a fourth judgeship also is to be determined.

For one Cook County post on the high court, Democrat James A. Dooley, 62, a lawyer, opposes Republican Reginald J. Holzer, 49, a circuit judge.

In the other Cook County race, rivals are Republican Lawrence X. Pusateri, 45, a former state representative, and Democrat William G. Clark, 52, a former Illinois attorney general.

In the 13-county Second Judicial District in northern Illinois, Appellate Judge Thomas Moran (R) of Waukegan opposes Stanley Roszkowski (D) Rockford attorney.

Howard C. Ryan of Tonica seeks retention for a full term in the 21-county Third District in northern and central Illinois.

St. Louis U. challenge goal met 2 years early

St. Louis University announced this week that it has surpassed its $45 million Danforth challenge grant campaign goal almost two years ahead of schedule.

The university also announced the extension of its current development program to seek another $10 million by 1980.

The new campaign goal will be primarily to help "move the university toward an even higher peak of academic excellence," said the chancellor, the Rev. Paul C. Reimer, S. J.

The Danforth Foundation in 1973 gave St. Louis University a $20 million challenge endowment grant. In order to earn the entire amount, the university had to match it dollar for dollar by June 30, 1978, with gifts from other non-governmental sources.

"We knew the response from every source would be enthusiastic, but it has far surpassed our wildest hopes," Father Reimer said. "Counting matching cash gifts, pledges and anticipated renewal gifts which will become cash before the five-year deadline, we have reached a total of $45,242,000."

The $45 million campaign goal included the $20 million grant, the matching $20 million and $5 million in interest on the grant for the five-year period.

The announcements were made at the annual civic dinner, climaxing the university's Founders' Week. About 1,200 were in attendance to help celebrate the university's 158th anniversary. The Spirit of St. Louis Award "for pioneering achievement of significant benefit to mankind" was conferred on Roy Wilkins, executive director of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Also addressing the dinner, the university president, the Rev. Daniel C. O'Connell, S. J., reported that the university is "very fiscally sound", more so than at any time in the past ten years.

He noted a recent report by Change, a journal of higher education, which indicated over 90 percent of United States Catholic institutions of higher education are in "moderate to serious fiscal difficulties." St. Louis University's fiscal position is completely counter to that situation, he said.

F. Reimer said the expanded campaign would support "an organized vision of what the university can and should achieve academically by the year 1980." This vision, he said, will be built on six major university foundations: Judeo-Christian values, academic reputation and potential, location, facilities, leadership and proven widespread support.

Boothman, Nance rivals in County Board District 25

Homer M. Boothman, 55, of 3208 Fairmont, State Park Place, is the Democratic nominee in Madison County Board District 25 for re-election as a county board member Tuesday, Nov. 2.

He is opposed by Michael Nance, Republican.

Boothman was the winner of a three-man race for the first time in 1972, he is seeking another four-year term.

A State Park resident 24 years, he was born in Washington Park and graduated from Collinsville High School.

A brickman, Boothman has been active on County Board committees, including the Four Township Sewer Committee seeking to install sanitary sewers in areas not presently served by such sewers.

He has been Democratic committeeman of Nameoki Township Precinct Four since 1966.

Married and the father of five children, he has served as a State Park Baptist Church deacon and is a Mason.

Acknowledging that sewers plans have been blocked for the time being in State Park Place, Boothman cites the need for them and notes that voters in the area voted overwhelmingly for sewers in 1968. Chairman of the tax committee, he is a member of the finance committee of the county board. He advocates increased coordination between elected county officials and the members of the Madison County Board.

Boothman attributes a developing county financial squeeze to rising payroll costs. A resident of this area for the past 25 years, he is employed by L. Korinek and Sons. He is a high school graduate and has been active in the Parent-Teacher Association, scouting and volunteer firemen's association.

Michael Nance, 23, of 3206 VFW Lane, State Park Place, appears on the Nov. 2 general election ballot as the Republican candidate for member of the Madison County Board from District 25. He is commissary manager at Ogden Foods.

Nance regards the incumbent board member, Homer Boothman, as more experienced but adds that "I could bring a fresh approach and new ideas."

An advocate of increased law enforcement services by the sheriff's staff in unincorporated areas, Nance also is a backer of sanitary sewers for State Park Place.

He favors a limit on the number of county board committee sessions and would prefer lower per diem meeting pay.

Nance "urges election of Republicans to the Madison County Board to provide more of a balance between the two major parties."

A Collinsville High School graduate, he has been a precinct committeeman since 1974 and serves on the county GOP central committee.

Former coordinator of the Teepees in Collinsville, Nance is president of the State Park Community Improvement Association.

He is a member of the board of State Park Place auxiliary police.

Opposition for three university board members

University of Illinois trustee candidates on the Nov. 2 ballot include three Democrats, Earl L. Neal, William D. Forsyth Jr. and George W. Howard III, and three Republicans, Timothy W. Swain, Robert E. Allen and Dean Ennis Madden.

The three Democrats are incumbent members of the university board. Neal resides in Chicago, Forsyth in Springfield and Howard in Mount Vernon. Neal has served as president of the board.

It is the only higher education governing board in Illinois that is composed of elected members.

A third of the board is elected every two years for six-year terms. The trustee posts are unsalaried.

Of the Republican candidates, Madden lives in Decatur, Swain in Peoria and Allen in Chicago.

Dear Veteran:
All of us, as veterans, are constantly reminded of our responsibilities to "those who have borne the burden of battle and their widows and orphans." For this reason we have formed a "Veterans for Howett" committee, with a view to continuance, and expansion of Veterans' Programs in the great State of Illinois.

Today many people don't believe what politicians promise, but we ask you to look at Mike's record. He has always delivered more than he has promised. As Auditor, he doubled the service provided Illinois taxpayers with less personnel. As Secretary of State, he did far better. He returned $13 million to the treasury in one year. Experience in government is important because it teaches one to work with people and how to make the bureaucracy work for the people. More important, experience has proven to anyone who takes time to look at his record that he delivers more services to more people at less cost to the taxpayers. In 16 years he has saved the taxpayers of Illinois at least 25 times the salary he was paid as Auditor and Secretary of State.

We know Mike Howett will be honest and sincere in approaching Veterans' programs, because like us, he is a veteran. May we earnestly solicit your cooperation in our efforts? If we talk to support someone, like ourselves, who has known the honor of wearing the uniform of this country we won't have much to say about Veterans' Programs.

3 cars collide at 23rd-Madison

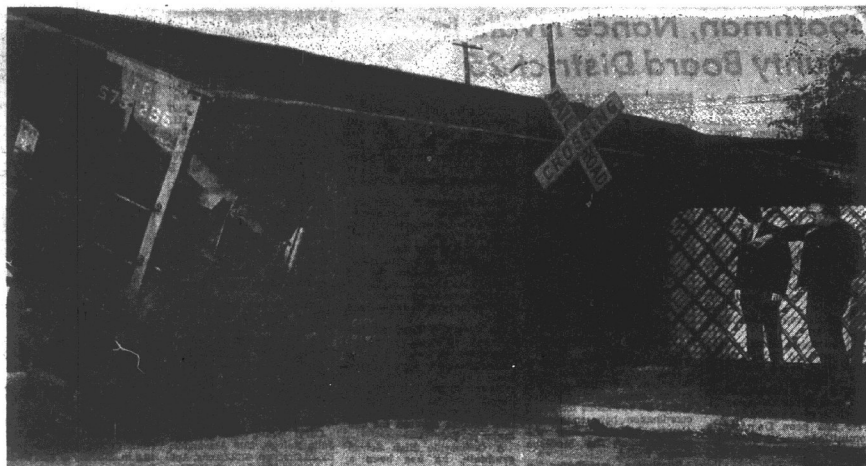

A three-car collision on Madison Avenue at 23rd Street during the weekend resulted in a passenger in one vehicle sustaining minor injuries. Police said the signal lights were flashing yellow for Madison Avenue traffic and red for cross traffic at the time of the accident.

Reported injured was Nellie I. Boerckel, 65, of 635 Chouteau Ave., a passenger in a car operated by Judith Aldridge, Rural Route 2, Box 750, Granite City.

Drivers of the other vehicles were Melvyn J. Pfeiffer, 2150 State St., and Wilma P. Manogian, Collinsville.

CAR IS TAKEN

The beige over white 1975 Lincoln Mark IV auto of Herman O'Dell, 100 State St., Madison, was stolen from the rear parking lot of Tri-City American Legion Post 113 at 1825 State St., this week.

RAILROAD CAR DERAILMENT. Thursday at Iowa Street near 14th Street blocks traffic on Iowa before workmen of the Illinois Terminal Railroad could repair the track and move the cars. On the right Officer

Donald Bridick inspects the damage minutes after the accident, as Danny Sipes points to a critical area where the track gave way. It took several days to clear the crossing.

State cash crisis narrowly avoided

INTERSECTION MISHAP

James C. Reeves, 2436 Grand Ave., sustained a minor injury during the weekend when his car and a vehicle operated by Pamela J. Hillmer, 2906 Michigan Ave., collided at Grand Avenue and 24th Street. Reeves was treated at St. Elizabeth Hospital for pain in the right arm and chest. He was released after x-rays proved negative.

General Assembly passage of legislation to split the September reimbursement to school districts for special education and pupil transportation into quarterly payments has averted an October cash crisis, State Comptroller George W. Lindberg said late last week in his monthly financial report.

On Oct. 18, the cash balance in the state's general funds was $23 million, Lindberg said, an amount representing less than what the state spends on an average working day.

"If the school reimbursement had not been split and had been paid out in September in a $164 million package, the state would have been temporarily out of business with a $100 million backlog in unpaid bills right now," Lindberg said.

"The fact that the state has a positive balance confirms the success of the cooperation in the spring legislative session by the governor, the comptroller and the General Assembly."

"The spread-out in school reimbursement payments, under which the schools are being compensated for any lost interest, is a key point in my plan of June 10 to balance the state budget and stop a tax hike," Lindberg said.

The comptroller also reported that the state completed its 1975-76 budget year with an on-paper balance of $62 million in the red.

On June 30, the last day of the fiscal year, there was $126 million in the treasury, an amount less than the $188 million in added bills that came in during the three-month lapse period in which bills from 1975-76 still could be paid.

What it means is that for the first time in at least 30 years, the state ended a fiscal year with a negative budgetary balance. If the state had gone out of business on June 30, there would have been $62 million in bills that never got paid," Lindberg said.

Set new loan rates on '77 grain crops

Acting Secretary of Agriculture John A. Knebel has announced the loan rates for 1977-crop wheat, feed grains, and soybeans and said that they also would be immediately applicable to the 1976 crops.

The loan rate per bushel is raised from $1.50 to $2.25 for wheat and from $1.25 to $1.50 for corn. The soybean loan rate remains at $2.50 per bushel. Loan rates per bushel for other feed grains are increased proportionately based on the feed value of corn, as follows: Sorghum, $1.19 to $1.43; Barley, $1.02 to $1.22; Oats, 60 cents to 72 cents; Rye, $1 to $1.20.

Knebel said that the change in loan rates is being made now to give farmers timely assistance in the orderly marketing of this year's record crop of wheat, already in the bins, and the projected record corn crop, as well as large crops of other feed grains.

He cited the competitive pressure on established U.S. export markets brought about by Canada's huge wheat crop, and to better-than-expected grain crops in the Soviet Union. In addition, during the peak of the grain harvest season there has been a serious barge transportation problem, caused principally by the unusually low water levels.

Farmers who wish to secure loans or adjust present loans at the new rates for 1976 wheat and feed grains can do so by going to their local Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) Office or Agricultural Service Center.

Additional disbursement for loans already written on these crops will be available retroactively for those farmers who want to change now to the new rates.

Senior Center at Y planned

Mrs. Vina Law, president of the Granite City Chapter 1340 of the American Association of Retired Persons, Inc., reported the board of directors recommended the chapter hold in reserve $500 for a possible new Senior Center to be located at the Tri-Cities YMCA.

She announced an application has been presented to the Health, Education and Welfare Department, Washington, D.C., for renovation of the ground floor space at the "Y" for a Senior Center, and the reserve money will be used for that purpose. If HEW approved the application it would then be application for local participation, she added.

Mrs. Marge Hall was introduced as a new member and she spoke on the Retired Senior Volunteer Program (RSVP) which she represents at the "Y".

She also assists with the recreation for seniors at the "Y" held each week and she related information on the swine flu shots.

Mrs. Hall also reported on the telephone reassurance program initiated by RSVP and requested names of those needing help, so volunteers can call daily. Details on the project is available by contacting her at the "Y" at 876-7200.

Members met at the Coolidge Junior High School cafeteria for the session and recited the Lord's Prayer and pledge of allegiance to open the meeting.

Reports were given by Grace Kelly, Elma Hoover, Clara Schilling and Oscar Ash. Arthur Lindner was named chairman of the Christmas dinner dance to be held on Wednesday, Dec. 8 at the Croatian Hall and is now accepting reservations for the event. He also read a report of the nominating committee and added the election of 1977 officers will be conducted at the November meeting.

Mrs. Vernice Walter, assistant state director, said the Granite City Chapter has been given an excellent rating after the triennial review by state director Ed LaSalle.

The next meeting will be at 7 p.m. Nov. 10 at Coolidge Junior High School cafeteria.

Club hears South student

Hostesses Donna Schaefer, Muriel Dressel, Harriet Horn, Ertha Johnson and Verna Stuart used a fall decorating theme for the table appointments.

Patrick House, a South High School student and winner of the speech contest sponsored by the Madison County Women's Club spring meeting, spoke at the meeting.

He reviewed a summer workshop he attended at Eastern Illinois University at Charleston, Ill. He was sponsored by the local club.

Miss Lucinda Huck, president, announced several members have volunteered to attend the telephones at Channel 9 television station for its membership drive on Dec. 16.

A Christmas Boutique will be featured at the Nov. 17 meeting, Miss Huck added.

Those receiving prizes in the afternoon games were Irma Taylor, Ella Mae Harsh, Sharon Sandall, Mildred Branding and Dolores Johansen.

Guests present included Dolores Johansen, Susie

She welcomed 25 members and two guests Rebecca Rogers and Nellie Paterson of Ridley Park, Pa.

MICHAEL J. HOWLETT

Dear Friend,

As you know in a statewide campaign it is physically impossible to meet with all the fine citizens of this State. In the last 16 years as a candidate and as a state official I have crisscrossed Illinois many times and have had the opportunity to meet many thousands of fine Illinois citizens. There are many others, however, that I have not been able to meet in person. Therefore, I am using this means to ask you for your help and support to elect me as your Governor.

As Governor I will administer the many and varied programs and departments to the benefit of all the people. For the past 16 years as State Auditor and Secretary of State I have worked closely with members of the State Legislature and count many of them, both Republicans and Democrats, as my personal friends. It is imperative, especially in this unusual, one time, two year term, that we all work together to get things done.

I have pledged continued honesty, integrity, and the savings of taxpayers dollars as Governor of this State. I have put my political future on the line, because I have pledged that no tax increase will be enacted into law during the next term of Governor when I am elected.

Do not be alarmed by some of my opponent's so-called polls and statements concerning this election, because I truthfully believe that a majority of the citizens of our fine State, such as yourself, are going to elect me to the Office of the Governor. I ask you as a personal favor to me, to talk to your friends and neighbors and solicit their help in this endeavor.

Sincerely,

Michael J. Howlett

Alert citizenry can keep election fair—state board

A citizens' alert has been issued by the State Board of Elections to help prevent vote fraud in the upcoming elections.

"An alert citizenry is the chief safeguard against such fraud," according to Franklin J. Lunding Jr., chairman of the State Board.

Lunding said today the average citizen can play a major role in helping to guarantee a clean election by being aware of unusual activities at or near polling places and then reporting those activities to election authorities.

"Vote fraud, which is a clear intent or action aimed at depriving a voter of his right to vote or falsifying actual votes cast, generally is carried out in obvious ways," Lunding explained.

The four most common methods are:

1. Vote buying, offering money to a voter to vote for a specific candidate.
 2. Chain balloting, by someone passing a previously marked ballot to a voter entering the polls.
 3. Ghost voting, voting under the name of a deceased person, a fictitious name, or a non-existent address.
 4. Altering the figures during the tallies.
- "If a voter knows what should NOT be happening at the polls, a lot of vote fraud could not take place," Lunding remarked.
- He listed eight "tell-tale signs" voters should be suspicious of and report:

1. "If you see money changing hands near the polls between precinct captains or committeemen and voters."

2. "If you see someone passing a folded piece of paper to a voter who hides it on his person."

3. "If you hear someone giving an address of a place that you know is an empty lot. Or, if you know a person doesn't live at the address which he claims."

4. "If you see more than one pair of legs in a voting booth, except under these circumstances: If a disabled person signed an affidavit requesting assistance, he may have a friend or two judges of election (one from each party) assist him in the voting booth. If a person is illiterate and requests assistance and signs an affidavit, one judge from each major party may join him in the booth."

5. "If you see someone drinking liquor in the polls."

6. "If you do not see election judges representing both major parties in the polling place."

7. "If it appears that the judges of election are not in control of the polling place, for example, a precinct captain or committeeman giving orders to judges."

8. "Any of the above should be reported to a local board of elections or the state board," Lunding said.

He also said that many voting irregularities are misconstrued as vote fraud. These occur as a result of misunderstanding voting rules or election laws, or through malfunction of a voting device. However, Lunding said that these, too, should be reported to the authorities.

The State Board of Elections will have staff members on hand to answer questions from 5 a.m. to 10 p.m. on election day, Nov. 3, in both the Springfield and Chicago offices.

The Springfield office of the State Board is at 1020 S. Spring St., 217-782-4141. The Chicago office is at 100 N. La Salle St., 312-436-6440.

CASH TAKEN FROM BAG
About $130 cash and a $10 personal check were stolen from a bank deposit bag on the kitchen table of the home of Katherine Puckett, 2401 rear Washington Ave., this week.

The front door was forced open and the door and lock damaged to gain entry. The money was part of the receipts from Butzie's Tavern, where the victim is employed.

Madison school programs ok'd

A letter from the Illinois Office of Education, Director of Public School Approval Section was read last week at a meeting of the Madison School Board which gave official approval of the school programs for this year in the Madison schools.

Dr. Joseph Cronin, state superintendent of education, said he has accepted the Madison board's invitation to visit the Madison District and will do so some time this fall. The board authorized a meeting with representatives of the Madison Branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People as requested in a letter from the NAACP. A date will be set that is agreeable to both groups.

The board awarded a contract to install safety systems in the kitchens of all schools to the Fire Safety Sales and Service Co. of Wood River at a cost of approximately $950 per kitchen.

The board also approved schedules for open houses during American Education Week, Nov. 14-20.

The board discussed an invitation to enter the Quad-Cities Athletic Conference which is being organized and will include Dupu, Columbia, Freeburg, Central of Illinois and possibly two or three other schools.

Schulte opposes Circuit Court Clerk Portell

WILLARD V. PORTELL

VERNON SCHULTE

Victor in the Democratic primary election for the office of clerk of the Third Judicial Circuit was the incumbent, Willard V. "Butch" Portell. Portell, a former Granite City, resides on Rural Route Three, Collinsville.

Portell, 58, who was honored at a large testimonial dinner held at SUE Nov. 7, 1975, is seeking his fifth consecutive four-year term as circuit clerk. He is a bachelor.

In the new term, yearly pay will be $24,000.

Portell, who receives a current annual salary of $19,000, operates an office with a yearly budget of about a half-million dollars and a staff of more than 50 persons.

Prior to becoming circuit clerk in 1960, he served in other posts at the County Courthouse for eight years—four years on the sheriff's staff and four years in the county treasurer's office.

Each year since 1960, he has published his personal income tax information keeping with his campaign pledges.

Portell was elected in 1972 as president of the Illinois Court Clerks Association.

His affiliations include St. Peter and Paul Catholic Church in Collinsville, Sacred Heart Church in Granite City, the Knights of Columbus, Hyfl Name Society, American Legion, Moose and Elk.

He is a veteran of U.S. Navy service.

Portell's interests include fellowship with professional athletes, and he yearly serves as co-chairman of a golf tournament that raises funds to combat cystic fibrosis in the St. Louis metropolitan area.

Because of the unusually large volume of suits handled in Madison County, he regards the responsibilities as considerable.

He says his employees in the past helped provide reelection campaign funds but that such collections were ended last fall, and he refunded $1,420 to 48 workers. The half per cent of salary had been in addition to 1½ per cent contributions to county Democrats, he said.

Court clerical services are offered in Granite City, Edwardsville, Alton, East Alton, Wood River and Collinsville. He regards the services rendered as highly professional and efficient.

He has noted substantial upturns in the number of divorces, juvenile offenses, misdemeanors and felonies.

Although this county is considered fifth largest in Illinois, Portell adds it is second only to Cook County in the number of major law cases.

The circuit clerk reports that the annual caseload has risen from 42,000 to 56,000 in the past term while full-time employees have been reduced from 53 to 46.

Liberal vs. conservative for the vice-presidency

WASHINGTON — You could call him "Mr. Liberal," or "Mr. Child Care," or "Mr. Busing," or even "Mr. Consumer."

For Sen. Walter Mondale, the Democratic vice presidential nominee, fits all of these descriptions.

In his nearly 11 years since being appointed to the U.S. Senate on Dec. 30, 1964, the senator from Minnesota has compiled a record of liberal voting and advocacy of liberal causes second to none in Congress.

So strong are his credentials in this area that he has consistently earned ratings of 92 per cent or higher — and was even rated 100 per cent in 1971 — by the liberal Americans for Constitutional Action (ACA) in each of his congressional years.

And conversely he has been at the other end of the rating spectrum of the conservative Americans for Constitutional Action (ACA). From them he received a mark of zero in 1965 and 1966, and never higher than 9 per cent.

The obvious import of all this is that Walter (Fritz) Mondale is a man of firm ideological views who believes in government-oriented solutions to America's problems.

And since voting performance tells much about the man, it is not surprising that Mondale may be only a heartbeat away from the presidency. It is a record worth examining.

Born Jan. 5, 1928, in Ceylon, Minn., the son of a Methodist minister and a socially activist mother, Mondale was reared in an atmosphere of intense interest in the underprivileged.

He graduated cum laude in 1951 from the University of Minnesota, with a B.A. in political science. After two years' enlisted Army service, he graduated from the University of Minnesota Law School and joined the prestigious Minneapolis law firm whose alumni included former Minnesota Gov. and U.S. Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman, U.S. Rep. Donald Fraser, D-Minn., and former Federal Communications Commission Chairman L. B. Nichols.

During his university days Mondale worked summers with migrant laborers in Minnesota fields and canneries. And still later, while practicing law, he became active in the Democratic Farmer-Labor Party.

Against this background it is not surprising that Mondale was appointed by Gov. Freeman to fill a vacancy as state attorney general — a post he later won by election twice.

Still later he was appointed to the U.S. Senate to fill the unexpired term of longtime friend, Sen. Hubert Humphrey, when Humphrey became vice president in 1964. Mondale has won reelection twice since by comfortable majorities.

In each of the years since the 1964 appointment Mondale has built a reputation in the Senate as a pragmatist who works hard, is willing to compromise, who prepares himself well and is worthy of such terms as "persistent, determined, respected and thorough," although perhaps too conciliatory and less than eager to take on a big fight.

All this has emerged in a voting record and sponsorship of legislation almost entirely focused on domestic affairs, with very few forays into foreign issues.

Likewise his interests often have been even more narrowly centered on social problems, particularly those of education and children. Indeed one of the most disputed — and ambitious — efforts in Mondale's career has been his repeated efforts to enact child day-care legislation.

Over the years Mondale also successfully has worked for legislation to provide migrant workers with unemployment benefits and legal services.

He has supported and helped enact bills providing for rent supplements, the model cities program, school lunch program, legal services for the poor, and the comprehensive Housing and Urban Development Act of 1968.

In the field of civil rights Mondale had a role in passage of the open-housing provisions of the Civil Rights Act of 1968. In 1970, he took a firm stand in favor of school desegregation through busing — a stand he has modified somewhat since.

Because so many vice-presidential candidates have advanced to the White House, this year's candidates for the Number 2 office are being scrutinized as potential Presidents. President Gerald Ford stresses his belief that Senator Robert J. Dole of Kansas, Republican vice-presidential nominee, offers exceptional ability and knowledge.

Dole's voting record generally is conservative. He is known as an effective campaigner who combines wit with skill in driving home debating points.

The Kansas is well known to all segments of the Republican party through his service as chairman of the party's national committee from 1971 until January 1973.

The 1972 campaign, criticized for abuses, was conducted by a White House committee separate from the party structure.

Dole, 53, entered politics at the age of 28 when he was elected to the Kansas state legislature. After one term there, he was elected to four terms as prosecuting attorney of Russell County.

In 1960, he was elected to the U.S. House of Representatives, serving as a congressman from Kansas for two years.

Dole was elected to the U.S. Senate in 1968, succeeding Sen. Frank Carlson (R), who retired. In 1974, he was widely expected to lose his campaign for

SEN. ROBERT DOLE

Senate re-election, but he ignored polls and fought aggressively for voters' support. He won with 59.9 per cent of the vote over Democrat William R. Roy.

Dole divorced his first wife and married Mary Elizabeth Hanford, a member of the Federal Trade Commission, in December 1975.

The senator, who has a daughter, Robin, graduated from Washburn University in Topeka, Kan., in 1952 and received a law degree from Washburn the same year.

Serving in World War II, he suffered serious combat wounds and his right arm is crippled as a result of the wounds.

GRANITE CITY PRESS-RECORD Thurs., Oct. 28, 1976

Venice School District council names officers

The officers of the Joint Title I and Title VII Districtwide Advisory Council for 1976-77 of Venice Community Unit District 3 are Verla Arnold, co-chairman, and Charlotte Dilday, co-chairman, and Rose Mathis, secretary, according to Althea Cross, project director.

Dole had been leading his infantry platoon in an advance through mountains in northern Italy when his right shoulder was shattered by an explosive shell fragment.

Cracked vertebrae left him paralyzed, but 15 months later he was able to feed himself and gradually he regained use of all his limbs except the right arm. He taught himself to write with his left hand.

In accepting the vice-presidential nomination, Dole called for ending "the oppressive restraints of government."

"The question and the purpose of human liberty are not the rights of government, the dignity of government or the future of government. Rather, they are the rights of the individual, his hopes and dreams, his dignity and the future of humanity itself."

"The engine of freedom has taken the United States farther toward the goals of justice, equality, prosperity and security than has the government of any other nation."

"President Ford has succeeded because he has placed his faith in the American people and not in the discredited gimmicks of government."

At the October meeting, tokens of appreciation were awarded to the 1975-76 officers, including Mrs. Arnold, chairman; Mrs. Dilday, assistant chairman; and Sondra Pumphrey, secretary.

Kathy Fields, chairman of the National Education Week Committee, invited the members to participate in the open house activities, scheduled for Nov. 17-18, and to attend a "Career Fair" on Nov. 4. The Title I Planning Committee was formed under Robert Blatner, coordinator of Title I.

Vinston Birdin, educational program specialist; Louis Irons, branch chief, Region V, HEW, USOE; and Gene LeMay, assistant director, EEO, Illinois Office of Education, made an on-site visit to the Title VII Basic and Pilot programs at Venice, it was reported. They announced that there will be a special meeting in the Chicago area on Nov. 18, at which time information will be disseminated regarding the submission of Title VII Applications for 1977-78. The deadline will be Jan. 17, 1977.

The advisory council's next meeting will be held Nov. 12, at 10:20 a.m. in the Venice School Library.

When Jimmy Carter gets specific, Americans get worried.

Jimmy Carter has a reputation for being fuzzy on the issues. But lately he's been getting specific—and Americans have been getting worried.

He says it's okay to slash 5-15 billion dollars from America's defense budget, despite the fact that the Russians are moving full steam ahead.

He says he supports "with enthusiasm" the Democratic Party platform, despite the fact that it's a more-big-government, more-big-spending platform that would cost the taxpayers over $100 billion more the first year alone.

He says we've got to check inflation, but his all-out support of that same platform means lots more deficit spending—and lots more inflation.

He says he doesn't like forced busing, but names Walter Mondale as his running mate, one of the strongest supporters of pro-busing legislation in Washington.

He says he's for the middle class home-owners, but proposes the elimination of the mortgage tax deduction for home-owners—which enables many working, middle class families to afford a home.

He says we've got to attack crime, but all he offers are warmed-over liberal notions, and comes out against capital punishment.

He says he's for preserving neighborhoods, but backs programs which would mean more federal control at the expense of local control, and proposes to tax church-owned properties—churches being one of the most stabilizing forces in neighborhoods.

He says he's for the middle-income taxpayer, but announces he would increase taxes on all those earning more than the median income—which is only $13,000 per year.

No wonder Americans are getting worried. No wonder growing numbers of them are lining up behind President Ford... a man whose leadership has cut the inflation rate in half, put 4 million more Americans back to work in the last 18 months, and restored the trust of Americans in their government.

President Ford

Howlett challenges Arab boycott of Israel in Illinois

Democratic candidate for governor Michael J. Howlett last week proposed stiffer state penalties to combat the Arab boycott of Israel in Illinois.

The new Howlett plan would put teeth in present Illinois anti-boycott laws enabling persons hurt by the boycott to sue for triple damages. Howlett would also subject the guilty to criminal antitrust penalties of up to one year in jail and fines up to $50,000.

Charging that "President Ford, the Republican party, and my Republican opponent have refused to fight the Arab boycott," Howlett said, "the latest Republican cave-in to the boycott is the refusal of the Commerce Department to disclose the names of the companies that participated before Oct. 6, despite President Ford's specific promise in the second debate to do so."

"That retreat comes on the heels of the administration's diaphanous opposition to strengthening or extending the Export Administration Act which expired Sept. 30 and the President's reluctant approval of the anti-boycott sections in the new tax revision bill after first adamantly opposing them and threatening a veto," said Howlett.

"The entire administration policy toward the boycott is a travesty that strikes at the heart of American principles of liberty and equality. It amounts to a wink and a smile at the Arab countries who are trying to blackmail American firms into hurting Israel. The policy would not even provide a slap for the huge multinational corporations that cooperate in the boycott."

"If President Ford will not oppose economic warfare against Illinois citizens who are Jewish and my Republican opponent will not lift his voice to criticize those policies, I will reject the attempt of Arab countries to interfere with our free trade and undermine our freedom from religious discrimination," said Howlett.

"I intend to do something about it. By adding teeth to Illinois laws we can make it clear that fundamental human rights of Illinois citizens are not for sale. I don't intend to knuckle under to blackmail." The export administration had required U.S. companies to report boycott requests to the government. Efforts to extend and strengthen it were stymied in the closing days of Congress by Sen. John G. Tower (R-Tex.) with administration support. Amendments to the tax bill affecting the boycott denied participating companies portions of three foreign tax benefits.

A House Commerce subcommittee found that the Commerce Department had "implicitly condoned compliance" with the boycott. Commerce Department figures show that U.S. exporters complied with boycott requests in 94 per cent of business transactions. A House Government Operations committee report revealed recently that virtually all U.S. banks doing business in Israel "willingly" with restrictions aimed at Israel and her trading partners.

Howlett would strengthen three Illinois laws that now affect the boycott:

The commissioner of banks and trusts was required to issue guidelines prohibiting discrimination by state-chartered banks against blacklisted companies.

Financial institutions, government agencies, and shipping companies are prohibited from entering into NAMEOKI ROAD CRASH last week in the 3300 block involving three vehicles — a car, a truck and a van. The driver of the car, Cynthia Davis, was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital after the accident. Another car believed to have caused the accident left the scene without stopping.

Nutrition key in fighting ailments

By LESTER BELL
Press-Record
Washington Bureau

Observing Sen. Charles H. Percy's energy, drive, and ambition, many have wondered what makes "Chuck" run. We don't know, but we can tell you what fuel he uses.

The Illinois Republican gets all that forward momentum from 1,600 to 1,800 calories a day, or did until recently. His intake is probably higher now that he has been told that it is a bit low for an active man in his early 50s.

This insight, if you want to call it that, began in July when the Senate Select Committee on Nutrition and Human Needs held hearings on "diet related to killer diseases," i.e., heart attack, stroke and cancer.

"Americans now spend on the average 10 per cent of their total income on health care alone," Percy said in an opening statement. "If nothing else, the pocketbook incentive should encourage each and every one of us to test the thesis that good nutrition and living habits can go a long way to prevent disease and maintain good health."

To evaluate his own diet, Percy later sent sample menus to one of the committee's expert witnesses, Dr. Philip R. Lee, professor of social medicine, University of California Medical School, San Francisco.

Percy's breakfast five days a week includes Granola or other natural cereal, fresh fruit or orange juice, tea with milk and English muffin with jam.

For lunch, it's invariably a chef salad or a cheeseburger. Dinner normally is a clear green salad; clear soup, either spinach or mushroom or asparagus; meat, fish or chicken; a green or yellow vegetable; potatoes or rice occasionally; fruit, gelatin or baked apple with cookies, for dessert; and Sanka or tea.

Percy drinks two glasses of skim milk a day. His only snack is whole bran flakes with skim milk.

Dr. Lee turned Percy's menus over to Jenny Johnson, nutrition consultant of the medical school's health policy program. "All in all," she reported to

Lee, "Senator Percy eats an excellent diet. It is low in fat, low in cholesterol, low in calories, low in food additives, low in refined carbohydrates and high in nutrients and fiber."

She calculated Percy's menus "as somewhat low in calories." The 1,600 calories consumed in one day are "well below the 2,400 calories recommended for a healthy adult man 51 years of age or over," she observed.

She said the easiest way to analyze a menu is to compare it with the daily food guide which was developed to meet the National Research Council's recommended dietary allowance.

"Mrs. Percy and I intend to utilize the (guide) in planning all our meals," the senator said in thanking them for the evaluation.

The guide mentioned is "FNS 13, a daily food guide." It can be obtained by writing to: Food and Nutrition Service, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D.C. 20250.

Miss Vicki Johnson and Gary W. Ellis are wed

Miss Vicki Lynn Johnson, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald L. Johnson, 4127 Old Alton Road, Granite City, and Gary Wayne Ellis, the son of Rev. and Mrs. Albert W. Ellis, 2669 Highway 3, exchanged wedding vows on Oct. 10, at Tri-City Park Tabernacle at 4 in the afternoon.

The Rev. J. Albert Calaway officiated at the double-ring ceremony with Rev. Clarence Barr, grandfather of the bride, Rev. A. Wayne Ellis, the groom's father and the Rev. William Simmons, brother-in-law of the groom, assisting. A reception immediately followed in the church fellowship hall.

Musical selections included "If" and "I Honestly Love You" and were sung by Mrs. Carolyn Simmons, sisters of the groom.

For her wedding the bride chose a long ivory chiffon net over taffeta gown fashioned with an empire bodice with ribbon at waist. Chantilly lace accented the high neckline and narrow scallop collar and also formed a bib effect on the molded bodice. Appliques of Chantilly lace also trimmed the bodice of the gown and the chapel train.

She wore a Chantilly lace flat headpiece to secure a finger-tip veil bordered with lace. The bridal bouquet was an arrangement of fall flowers in a straw basket with orange streamers.

Miss Nancy S. Miller served as maid of honor and wore a floor length burnt orange polyester gown trimmed in ivory lace and an ivory picture hat with burnt orange streamers.

The groom chose Thomas Stewart as best man. Gary Johnson brother of the bride and William Knapp seated the guests.

Miss Marsha Frost presided over the guest book.

The bride, a graduate of Granite City High School now is presently employed in the office of Chris Kaye Plastics Mfg. Co.

The groom graduated in 1973 from South High School and is now training as a millwright at Granite City Steel.

They are residing in Ponton Beach.

MRS. GARY W. ELLIS, the former Miss Vicki Lynn Johnson who was married in an afternoon ceremony at Tri-City Park Tabernacle Church. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald L. Johnson, 4127 Old Alton Road.

Larry Sidener named "Boss of the Year"

The Tri-Cities Chapter of the National Secretaries Association (International) named Larry Sidener of Sidener Supply as 1976 "Boss of the Year" at their annual Boss Night banquet, last week.

On behalf of 1976 Boss of the Year Eugene Verda, director, Programs and Services for Older Persons of Belleville Area College, Anne Smith, past secretary to Verda and past Tri-Cities Chapter president, presented Sidener the award as a result of his many contributions to and enthusiastic support of the Tri-Cities Chapter throughout the years.

Madame Ceremonies Twila Edmonds announced the honoree has attended every Boss Night banquet since the event was initiated in 1964 and has attended many "Secretaries Week" functions as well. He also has provided assistance toward the success of the yearly Future Secretaries Association initiation ceremonies in addition to being Santa Claus during the Tri-Cities Chapter's annual Christmas visit to the Shelter Care Home in Edwardsville. Mrs. Edmonds noted that this is the first time in the history of the Tri-Cities Chapter that the "Boss of the Year" title has been awarded to the same person a second time. Sidener had also been designated "Boss of the Year" in 1967.

The gala evening, featuring a Spanish theme, was held at the Breckenridge Inn of the Spanish Pavilion in St. Louis. The Gomez Brothers "Mariachi" Band provided entertainment during dinner with many Spanish instrumental and vocal selections.

Past Bosses of the Year present were acknowledged with gifts as a token of appreciation for their support of the Tri-Cities Chapter. These included, Sidener; 1969, Mrs. Mary Sedekum, AMSCO; 1971

Elroy Rule, Shrine of Our Lady of the Snows; 1972 Norman Le Tourneau, General Steel Industries; 1974, William (Mike) Ebersold, Mayor of Venice.

The hostess committee included Chairman Marisa Kraus, Betty Borsch, Twila Edmonds, Linda Fritchey, Mary Gain, Joyce Savich and Adrienne Warchol.

Costumes worn at Pack 17 party

Larry Beyer, Todd Griffen and Paul Rhodes won prizes for "best" costumes at Cub Pack 17's Halloween party and October meeting held last week in Marshall School gymnasium.

All the Cub Scouts and many adults attended the event in costume.

Several games were played to "spooky" music, including "poison" apple, a marshmallow-apple string contest and tossing a bean bag through a haunted house window.

Prizes were awarded and "trick or treat" bags of popcorn and candy were distributed by mothers of Den 2 cubs. Cider donuts were served later by Den 1 mothers in the school cafeteria.

Cubmaster Elmer Stille opened the meeting, and Den 2 cubs presented the colors and led the pledge of allegiance.

Ribbons were awarded to those participating in a physical fitness contest in September, including first place ribbons to Timmy Tegel, Jim Clark and Todd Griffen; and second place to Brad Gilbert, Bennie Sanders and Mike Loyet.

A candlelight ceremony was held and achievement awards were presented. Recipients were: Greg Barnett, Paul Rhodes and Ronnie Houston, Bobcat emblems; Bennie Sanders, Wolf badge; and Larry Beyer and Tony Leone, Roundup patches.

Fifty-five parents, cubs and guests were present at the party with Den 2 receiving the "Cubby" award for having the most adults present.

Halloween artwork made by the boys was displayed, including pumpkins, ghosts, goblins and witches, among other seasonal characters.

Pinewood derby car kits were given the cubs to create their own machines for the annual race in November.
